Announce New Books At Library

New books added to the Farmington City and Township Library recently were announced by Mrs. A. M. Leach, librarian, this week. Hours at the library are 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. every day except Tuesday and Sunday. Also, the library is open Wednesday and Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in addition to the 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. hours. Books for juveniles are: "Three Boys And The Remarkable Cow," "Abe Lincoln's Other Mother," "America Before Columbus," "All Around You," "Electronics For Young People," "Gilbert And Sullivan Songs For Young People," "One Morning In Maine," "Everyday Weather And How It Works," "Roanie," "Big Mutt," "Snakes," and "Story of Hiawatha." Adult books are: "For Goodness' Sake," "Hidden Flower," "Great Tradition," "Red Carpet," "Windows For The Crown Prince," "Windy Way," "Gown of Glory," "Over A Bamboo Fence," "Born Of Those Years," "Southwest Corner," "Child From Five To Ten," "Grass Beyond The Mountains," "World's Great Tales Of The Sea," and "Natives Are Friendly."

Squeezed-In Campers Draw Park Sight-Seers

Most state parks are showing record attendance figures this summer, but the manager at W. J. Hayes park says that park is so full on week ends that neighbors "are driving in just to see how many people are squeezed in there." By MISS L. A. AULT
 TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-31

Little Miss Mary Kochanek, after spending two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roberts of Mayfield Avenue, has returned to her home in Jackson. Mrs. Marietta Wyman and her two children, Bobby and Sharon, returned home the latter part of last week from a vacation trip during which they spent some time in Kentucky and Tennessee and also visited Mrs. Wyman's father, Herman Schult, who is a patient in a hospital near South Bend, Indiana. Mr. Schult's condition is reported serious. At her home on Mayfield Avenue last Sunday evening, Mrs. M. E. Ault tendered a birthday dinner to her eldest daughter, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson. William Griffith, son-in-law of Mrs. E. W. Stange, and who has frequently served as soloist in the Neighborhood Church, has been quite ill and this week underwent surgery in the Wyandotte General Hospital. Mrs. Griffith has also been ill. Mrs. Grace Simpson of Mayfield Avenue is spending the week at a Christian Life Camp near Lapeer, Michigan. She is assisting in the work of caring for young folks at the camp. Other women from the Farmington Baptist Church have also donated their services. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman of Mayfield Avenue were visiting in Mishawick, Indiana, and called on their daughter, Mrs. Robert Laughman, and her new little son Billy, born in the hospital there on July 12. Wednesday Mrs. Tallman left to be with her daughter for a week or more. Mrs. Austin Ault, Miss Helen Ruth Ault, Mrs. Virginia Oman and Miss Ruth Ann Oman of Brentwood Avenue were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Throner near Ypsilanti Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue were visiting their daughter, Mrs. William Griffith in Dearborn last Sunday. This was a visit honoring Mrs. Griffith's birthday. Albert Hardy, from Wayne, was the Monday night guest of his mother, Mrs. Christina Rehahn, on Mayfield. The new owners are now occupying the Anders and Vincent properties on Mayfield. Miss Beverly Bollinger of Mayfield Avenue spent a recent week end with her aunt, Miss Esther that there was rain every day of their stay.

Accompanied by some of their friends, the Varholis of Shady Side Avenue enjoyed a picnic at Walled Lake last Sunday.

Mr. Joseph Lennon, formerly of Farmington but now living in Detroit, was among the several retired employees of the Edison Annual picnic at Belleville Point Park.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Diehl of Jefferson Street on the arrival of a girl July 8 at the Providence Hospital. Little Cheryl Katherine weighed eight pounds, three ounces upon her arrival.

Mrs. Estelle Sjabom is reported ill in St. Joseph Hospital in LaCrosse, Wisconsin. All her friends and neighbors wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Mary Fox attended the V. F. W. convention at Bay City and had a grand time. She gave an excellent report of the meetings attended.

Eddie Baruum has returned from a week vacation camping near Lake Orion. Deanna Devins celebrated her eighth birthday July 21. Several playmates and relatives helped her celebrate the occasion.

He who in an enlightened and literary society aspires to be a great poet must first become a little child.
