

SIGNALING THE CARS BEHIND YOU HELPS YOU REDUCE ACCIDENTS— and HOLD DOWN INSURANCE RATES*

IT PAYS...

TO LEARN

TO SIGNAL WHEN

YOU STOP OR TURN

Other drivers, unfortunately, aren't mind readers. That's why it's a matter of common-sense to avoid serious accidents by signaling to let motorists behind you know your intentions. And since you buy auto insurance for financial protection, it makes good sense to select an MML Blue Ribbon Policy, which gives you the most complete protection money can buy. Our famous policy is backed by an exceptional record for prompt payment of claims—and you can pay for it as you drive, if you prefer. Phone today for rates on your car.
