SPRINGBROOK SCENES

Mrs. Howard Legg
PHONE FARMINGTON 3911-W

Work has already started to make the Red Cross Biop Bank in October as much of a success as the last one in Farmington was. October 13 and 14 are the days that have been set. Sellers get behind the workers and have the schedule filled in advance. An early call will assure you of getting the time and day you prefer.

There is still a demand for air spotters so if any of you have spare time you would like to spend in some very constructive work, don't hesitate to call for further information. If transportation is a problem, a ride can be arranged.

Mrs. Charles Taylor has been ill this past week with a very severe throat infection.

Mrs. Sebastian Zehner of Springbrook Drive entertained a group of the neighborhood ladies at a breakfast party on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilmore report that they had a very enjoyable vacation up on Sagway Bay even though the weather was very chilly.

Mrs. Rensberger has gone back to Indiana to visit friends and relatives for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burns and family spent the week end visiting their former Springfield Drive neighbors, the Carl Johnstons, who now live at Harbor Beach.

Mrs. John Aland, Sr., and Mrs. Mary Willard of Shiawassee were among the Farmington women who attended the American Legion convention in Grand Rapids from Thursday to Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Lucas, Sr., spent Saturday visiting her mother, Mrs. Nora Johnson, in Detroit.

Mrs. Bessie Mae Aland of Shiawassee recently celebrated her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Joseph McClurg entertained eight of her friends at an afternoon Stanley party last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, who was vacationing in Cold Chester, had to return home early because of an accident that injured her foot and required immediate medical attention.

Daughters Of Isabella Convene In Toronto

The national conference of the Daughters of Isabella with headquarters in Royal York Hotel, Toronto, Canada was held August 11 through 15. The conference brought together delegations from the United States, Canada and the Philippine Islands.

The convention formally opened Tuesday with a High Mass celebrated in St. Michael's Cathedral. Mrs. Caroline D. Manning, national regent, presided at the business meeting. The reception and parade of states was held Tuesday evening in the main ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. The Michigan state dinner is to be held this Thursday evening in the King Edward Hotel.

Mrs. Stella Strye, regent of Our Lady of Sorrows Circle 617, newly elected state trustee, was a guest speaker. The national convention is to close with a special Mass in honor of the Feast of the Assumption August 15 at St. Michael's Cathedral.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McAskin and family have returned home from a three-week vacation at their summer cottage at Muskoka, Ontario. Stella Jean Mather is spending several days with her grandparents in Windsor, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore of East Detroit were Wednesday guests of the Ross Moores of Beattie Street.

The Byrne Holmes family of Jefferson Street spent the week end up north in Boyne City.

Mrs. Estelle Sjaholm is reported home from the hospital and is recovering nicely. She thanks all her friends and neighbors who remembered her during her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Seely are new residents in the Jefferson Street neighborhood.

Pvt. Walter Rutenbar Serving In Korea

Pvt. Walter G. Rutenbar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rutenbar of 13580 Westmore, now is serving with the 45th Infantry Division in Korea, Army authorities report.

The 45th Division, which captured "T-Bone Hill" in June, recently took part in the see-saw battle for "Old Baldy," a strategic hill position near Choswon on the western front.

Summer rains have brought a virtual halt to large operations along the entire Korean front, but patrols still make daily contact with the enemy.

Entering the Army last October, Private Rutenbar was stationed at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland, before his present assignment overseas.

In civilian life he was a student at Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo.

Thomas Wetherell Promoted To Sergeant

Thomas A. Wetherell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Wetherell of 18220 Loveland, was recently promoted to sergeant first class as a member of the 25th Infantry Division's 5th Infantry Regiment, Army authorities report.

He was awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge, symbol of the front line, in mid-July. Wetherell was a sales order clerk for the Ditzler Color Division in Detroit prior to entering the Army in November, 1950.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Pleron and son Milford have returned home after spending a week's vacation in O'Fallon, Illinois.

A national nature admits of nothing which is not serviceable to the rest of mankind.

Give Dinner Party For Bride-To-Be

Honoring her niece, Miss Helen Ruth Ault, whose marriage to Loren Rend will be held Saturday, August 16, Mrs. M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue gave a large dinner party Thursday evening.

Guests included 25 girls friends and relatives of the bride-to-be. Following the dinner, many lovely gifts were presented to her. After their marriage the couple will reside in South Lyon.
