

THE WEATHER was a hot subject this past week end and we mean hot. Summer isn't goins to give up easily, and we can't gay as we entirely blame her because she hanst had too much chance to reign this year. However, if it is any confort to her, those 90 and some-odd degrees she diahed up will be remembered for a tor days anyway. They will be remem-bered by the workmen who were laying a new surface on Farmington Road. They will also be remembered by the football players who donned shouldler pads, hip pads and a few other protective garments and then put in an afternoon of running, blocking and tackling. In fact, they will be remembered by just about everyone, except those layes for who could rest in the shade with a great big glass of leed tea at their elbow.

rom all of us! PFCULT THANKS... should also go to Ferd Hutchinson. manager of the Detroit Tigetrs, who took the time to come out to Farmington and pay tribute to the Little Lengue baseball players. Fred did a wonderful job and won the admiration of everyone who attended the Little Lengue banquet. He not only gave an excellent talk, but took the trouble to shake hands with every boy and to give them a pair on the back for a job well done. Thanks should go also to Bill Hoeft. Tiger pitcher, and Harvey Kuenn. Tiger shortstop, for roming out. Altogether, it was a fitting climax to an excellent season. Ted Chapman and bis committee deserve a lot of credit for making the Little League program such a success, and we don't want to forget the wives who worked long and hard to pre-pare and serve an excellent dinner for a big and hangtry crowd.
