Hall, the "battle of the buses" has been settled! Our town is again friendly with Balesville. Everything started when buses began going through our town with a big sign on them saying SHOP IN BALESVILLE. The bun line is owned in Balesville and operates over here on a franchise. Windy Taylor was all for putting up barriesdes—he kept calling up the pules and the bus company. Finally Judge Cunning-tham invited the Balesville Chamber of Commerce to meet with

BACKYARD SAFETY IS SUGGESTED FOR HOME OWNERS

carded sharp objects, Miss Meyer instructs.

Fires, of course, must be carefully controlled in yards so it is wise to have a metal container for burning. A fire extinguisher in the garage would be a wise for illime and in good working order.

Become safety-conscious about not throwing lighted matches and cigarettes in grass and leaves, too.

Over a good meal and glass of beer we all reached a compromise without any trouble. Those signs now read SHOP HERE IN TOWN. Everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it shows how problems disappear once both sides problems disappear once both sides get together and try to work things out. Naturally we're all a little different. Some like sods pop, for instance, and some like beer. So what? We all have to ride along through life together. Why not make it a pleasant trip?
