LEAPIN' LENA' ---

Remember that's what they used to call them Model T Fords? We got a leapin' can in here that sure gave us a lot of laughs this week end. It's leapin' cause the price on it is red hot. There's 10 slices of Hawaiian pineapple in each can for just 29c. Yuh can't go wrong on that — can yuh — and yuh know there's an awful difference in the pineapple that comes from Hawaii and the kind that comes from Cuba — and there's an awful lot of coffee in Brazil. If yer havin' coffee what's nicer than a piece of pumpkin pie? Now we got 2 large size cans of Defiance pumpkin for 39c. Yuh know holidays are sneakin' up on us awful fast and we'll have to have pumpkin pie so yuh really should oughtta gitcher pumpkin on hand when yuh can save money on it. We're gonna have Hallowe'en first, tho, and if yuh wanna make popcorn balls for the "trick and treaters" we have 2 cans of Defiance popcorn — either white or yellow — for 35c — and that ain't all. Every time yuh buy 2 cans yuh git some Hallowe'en masks for free. Now what do yuh think of that? All the stuff we mentioned to you last week is still good this week too — like a tall can of Defiance red salmon for 69c and 25 lbs. of flour for $1.69 and a lb. of Defiance coffee for 79c. It's just like we said last week — it's a pantry stock up sale and yuh really should do some stockin' up 'cause there's some terrific savings runnin' loose in here and if yuh run fast enuf betcha you can latch onto 'em. Wanna try?

There don't seem to be much different to mention in meats so here we go agin with more of the same. There's our own cured and smoked bacon for 69c a lb. and our own pork sausage for 39c a lb. We make our own pork sausage from fresh pork and our hamburger from fresh beef. Betcha yer thinkin' — well — naturally — sausage from pork and hamburger from beef — but that word "fresh" pork and "fresh" beef makes the difference. Anyhow, that hamburger is 59c a lb. Next is the butter and margarine. The Vlastic butter is 73c a lb. and Defiance margarine is 21c a lb. Then we have some fresh frozen fryin' chickens for 53c a lb. We put these in the locker ourselves so we know they're good ones. Now we're up to the roastin' stuff. There's some skinless hot dogs for 53c a lb. Betcha didn't expect to see them there — didcha? The pot roasts of beef from CHOICE beef are 69c a lb. You knew all along that's what they'd be — didn'tcha? The boss sez I should tell yuh that we got some Motts apple cider in a gallon jug. The cider ain't so hot but it sure is a beautiful jug.

THREE INJURED IN ACCIDENTS TUESDAY NIGHT

Only the driver was injured on Tuesday evening at approximately 7:30 when a car driven by Jerry W. Fischback, 52860 Grand River Avenue, New Hudson, rammed two parked cars near the Chautauq Bar on Grand River.

The first car struck by Fischback's vehicle was one owned by Bob Harris, Eleven Mile and Drake Road. The impact carried the Harris car over the embankment on the south side of Grand River, demolishing it. Fischback's car then struck one owned by Joe O'Connor, damaging the rear and left side of the O'Connor car on impact.

Fischback was taken to Redford Receiving Hospital for observation and watched for negligent operation of a motor vehicle.

In another accident Tuesday, Mrs. Joseph Heuser was injured when struck by a car driven by Ralph R. Clayton, 21704 Middlefield.

Also injured was Mr. Joseph Heuser. The couple was injured when the Clayton car struck Mr. Heuser, throwing him against Mrs. Heuser. Mrs. Heuser suffered a broken left leg and Mr. Heuser minor abrasions of the left hand. Both were taken to Redford Receiving Hospital.

The Clayton car was traveling south on Farmington Road and was making a right hand turn onto Grand River when the accident occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Heuser were crossing Grand River from south to north at the time of the mishap. Clayton said that he did not see the couple.

Township Board

The system is well ahead of schedule and there is a bank balance of $847.49 in the operating fund. A number of residents complained that they have been unable to get their water. Douvan denied that any information has been withheld.

The Board met for the first time as a three-man body in accordance with the recent decision of the State Supreme Court that Justices can not legally sit on the Board. As a result of the change the Board approved a resolution that all voters must be signed by the Supervisor, the Clerk and Treasurer. Prior to Tuesday no money could be paid out without the signatures of the Supervisor, Clerk and one Justice.

TO COVER COSTS

The money is being borrowed by the District in anticipation of the 1953 tax. It is required to meet increased operational expenses due to the large addition in enrollment. The District applied for an advance in funds from the state but because of the shortage in the State Treasury the amount secured was insufficient. Monies forwarded to the various school districts are based on last year's enrollment.

SCHOOLS TO HEAR ABOUT DISCOVERY OF LAKE SUPERIOR

The thrilling story of Etienne Brule, young explorer who discovered Lake Superior, will be told children on the University of Michigan Radio Classroom program.

In finding the deepest fresh water lake, Brule became the first white man to enter what is now the state of Michigan.

About 1618, when the explorer was only 19 years old, he set out as a scout for Samuel de Champlain to find the elusive Northwest passage to China. With an Indian guide, he made his way through the wilderness in search of the "great sea of the West."

The radio script recounts the dramatic moment when Brule knelt on the shore of Lake Superior to sip its water, expecting to taste salty sea water.

Brule's story is one of a series of radio programs about important names in Michigan history carried by 27 stations in the state. Teachers, particularly in the school hours as a supplement to their regular instruction. Nearly 30,000 students are served by the programs produced on the University campus.
