

Pets Can Cause Asthma, U. Of M. Doctor Warns

Your dog's whiskers or your cat's "meow" may be making you an asthma victim. Dr. Robert G. Lovell, a University of Michigan allergist, says that dogs, birds and cats may give off tiny particles from their fur, feathers or skins to cause severe respiratory symptoms in allergic persons.

Hot Sweet Bread Warms a Chilly Morn

MANY times during cold weather, a snack of warm Sally Luncheon sweet bread and hot coffee will be very welcome. Of course, sweet breads make good breakfast treats, too. The following sweet bread recipe uses nonfat dry milk. Nonfat dry milk is added with the flour and other ingredients, and water is the liquid.

Piping hot sweet bread and steaming coffee make a chill-chasing breakfast on cold mornings. They are wonderful for hot snacks after the theater or an evening out.

One and one-half cups sifted flour, 3/4 cup nonfat dry milk, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, well beaten, 1/2 cup well beaten milk. Sift together flour, nonfat dry milk, powder, baking powder and salt. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg and mix well. Blend in water. Stir in sifted dry ingredients and mix only enough to dampen the dry ingredients.

Orange Nut Bread: Two cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/2 cup shortening, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup orange juice with pulp, 1/2 cup water, 3/4 cup chopped nuts. Mix and sift flour, salt, baking powder and soda. Cream sugar with shortening. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Stir in the liquid ingredients. Add nuts and pour in greased 9x5x3 loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) 50 to 60 minutes.

Scholarships Open To Boy Scouts

Prominent among several scholarships available to Scouts of this area are those offered by the Phillips Academy of Andover, Massachusetts. Information on Phillips Academy Scholarships, which vary in financial assistance according to individual situations, may be had from local scholarship committee chairman, Mr. Russell H. Lucas, Mr. W. F. Church, assistant Scout Executive. Mr. Lucas, a prominent downtown investment broker with offices at 639 Penobscot Building, may be reached at Woodward 2-5655.

Advise Bait Of Perch For Catching "Big Ones"

Pike, walleyes and bass find nothing quite so tasty as a small bluegill or perch, the conservation department's fisheries institute reports. Investigations show more small perch in stomachs of the three game species than anything else, even though suckers, shiners and other minnows were abundant in lakes where studies were made. There is "nothing better than a six-inch perch" in fishing for pike, walleyes and bass, the report notes.

As bait small perch and bluegills taken with care and line in place of the more expensive minnows.

Size limits on panfish have been removed and no law prevents use of panfish as bait. However, panfish for use as bait may not be taken in minnow seines or glass minnow traps. Mrs. G. Howe, Mrs. M. Dietle and Mrs. Reiss from this area were in Detroit November 14 attending the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Mary Newman, who died November 14 at the home of a daughter in Detroit. Mrs. Newman was well known in this community, where she had many friends and relatives.

ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

So here is a column we wrote a year ago and we're going to repeat parts of it this year, by popular request (mostly) orally. Now on this Thursday, it will come up Thanksgiving once again and even though we have a brand new president ready to take office, there is still a bit of grumble here and there that taxes are too high, rent too high, food out of sight and many a person goes so far as to say, "What have I to be thankful for?" which in our book is a bit on the silly side, because we firmly believe that each and every one of us have plenty to be thankful for.

Personally we're thankful that a man can make such remarks without political and personal repercussions. That he can make them and then go to a warm house, and with a big turkey on the table. He can make such remarks on the street, in a bar, in a restaurant and what happens to him is just a concentration camp in this broad, free land of ours devoted to people that have personal opinions, and where else but in these United States will you find drug stores advertising aid to help those who must lose weight because THEY ATE TOO MUCH!

And then on Sunday, we see Protestants and Jews and Catholics going and coming from their respective places of worship and never is there some person or faction to forbid them their temple or their place of worship, and in this United States, initiative still counts, in law, in business, in government, and a man can raise himself through his own ambition and personal abilities.

Yes, and in this United States, no man is bigger than the ballot of his neighbors come election day. On this Thursday, we are indeed deeply thankful that there is a United States of America and that we have the privilege of being a citizen therein!

Personally we're also a bit thankful that we just happen to be selling and servicing the most beautiful car in the Enterprise. It's a Studebaker, of course, and it's a good thing for us that you folk still can pick and choose, because when you're making so many of your friends and customers. Of course during the year to come, that that many more of you will drop in this Studebaker Mart of ours, because we know, once you're driven the Studebaker with its powerful V-8 engine, its ease of handling and discover how truly economical the car really is, you'll just up and buy one. . . all it takes is a demonstration.

Cub Scouts To Collect Bandages For Cancer

This year, snow or no snow, Cub Scouts around Farmington are going to make sure that "Short-Armed Soldiers" for the thousands of cancer patients in this area. The Cub Scouts mobilized this week for their fifth annual drive to collect bandages for the American Cancer Society scheduled for December 6 to 13. The material, donated by housewives, helped make cancer dressings which were distributed last year by the Southeastern Michigan division of the American Cancer Society.

White cloth collected by local Scouts will be used by American Cancer Society volunteers in our own community to make dressings and bed pads. Housewives are asked to cooperate by saving any old, white, clean, cotton cloth such as sheets, pillow slips, table cloths, napkins, towels, curtains, dresses and dresses, and giving them to the Cub Scouts who will be calling for them within the next month. Mrs. Silson explained that the white cloth is used for dressings. Silk or rayon fabrics are not suitable because of their lack of absorbency. Contributions should be placed in clean boxes and wrapped in clean paper.

Housewives are asked not to tear up men's old white shirts, as these will be made into short-sleeved gowns, or "Johns Hopkins" American Cancer Society volunteers. The Detroit Edison Company is again cooperating in the drive by offering its neighborhood offices as collection depots. Citizens who are able to deliver their contributions directly to their nearest Detroit Edison station would greatly aid the Scouts.

Since it is illegal for young children to solicit house-to-house, the Cub Scout headquarters requests that persons who are not contacted by children in their family or immediate neighbors, and are unable to deliver their cloth to the nearest Detroit Edison office, should contact their local Cub Master or Den Mother to arrange to have the material picked up.

IN AIR FORCE

Thomas G. Frazer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frazer of 21506 Middelet, is now stationed at the 48th Air Force Squadron, San Antonio, Texas. He is slated to receive radio training at the Lackland Air Force Base. He attended Farmington High School until 1949.

STRICTLY FRESH

It's tough on presidential candidates. They have to have a farm plan to cover every acre, including the "wise" ones. The vacation season soon draws to a close and so do the bank accounts.

The marriage rate for 1951 was the lowest since 1938 and the divorce rate has dropped. Sounds like TV or work, keeping both husbands and prospective suitors home.

Mr. O'Leary's cow warmed up Chicago. The elephant and donkeys were presented from it only by grace of air-conditioning. Now that both parties have nominated the "next president" we'll have to build another White House.

WEST POINT PARK NEWS

By MISS L. A. AULT TELEPHONE FARMINGTON 1451-M

Death of a brother-in-law called Mrs. Erwin Bohlinger and her daughter Beverly of Mayfield Avenue to West Branch last week end. Mr. Bohlinger was already in the north. Freda Ault of Shady-side Avenue was calling on Mrs. Charles E. Readford last Saturday evening. Lawrence Galloway from near Pontiac was calling on his aunt, Mrs. Christina Rehahn on Mayfield Avenue last Saturday. Rehahn's son and grandson, Al and Duane Hardy, from Wayne, were also Saturday guests.

Residents of this area are pleased to learn that they now can go to and from Farmington by way of bus. It is hoped there will be enough patrons to make this innovation a profitable venture. Mrs. Louis Graham and her daughter, Miss Wanda Graham, of Mayfield Avenue, spent last Sunday with friends in Midland. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judd and his daughters, Barbara and Loreta, from near Grosse Pointe, were calling on Mrs. Judd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange on Mayfield Avenue.

Robert Hunter and his daughter Mary Margaret from Detroit were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault on Hubbard Avenue last Sunday. Ernest Acl of Seven Mile Road and Roger Graham of Mayfield Avenue left last Sunday afternoon to enjoy several days of deer hunting in northern Michigan. Mrs. Virginia Falkerson, from Dearborn, was calling on Mrs. George W. Sandau of Hubbard Avenue last Monday morning.

Mrs. Leslie Bolyard of Hubbard Avenue is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Russell of Shady-side Avenue were visiting in Northville Friday evening. Clyde Buckingham, formerly of Norfolk Avenue, is in Louisville, Kentucky, for a few weeks. For a part of this week, Miss Martha Meade of Hubbard Avenue was confined to her home with a throat infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault of Hubbard Avenue were last Saturday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts in Wayne. Mrs. Al Sams and her daughter Sharon from Chicago were last week end guests of Mrs. Sams' brother, Arthur Muir and his family on Shady-side.

Dan, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita Avenue, has been ill this week with an ear infection. Mrs. Annie Currie from Redford was calling on the Misses Koenig on Shady-side Avenue Tuesday morning. E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue was visiting with his sister, Mrs. Clara Ahler in Detroit last Saturday evening. Miss Patty Schult of Shady-side Avenue was one of this week's flu victims.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crye from near Toledo, Ohio, were recent overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owen of Mayfield Avenue. Mrs. J. C. Dunham of Farmington Road has lately been much "under the weather". Mrs. Frank Gould of Farmington Road has recovered from a recent illness. Albert Owen of Mayfield Avenue was home ill part of this week.

Mrs. Louis Jennings and her very new little daughter, Gracie Ann, and her new left Sesosions Hoopie, are doing nicely at their home on Norfolk. Mrs. Hober Coolman and Mrs. Maynard Horton of Chard Avenue escorted their Girl Scout girls on a visit to the Art Museum in Detroit last Saturday. Girl Scouts are now busy selling Girl Scout calendars. Thursday luncheon guests of Mrs. Albert Owen of Mayfield Avenue were her three sisters, Mrs. Austin Ault, Mrs. Hugh Veach and Mrs. Norma Gedde. Nieces Mrs. George Throne and Mrs. Loren Read also attended. En route to the Atlantic seaboard, where he is to be stationed on a U. S. battleship, New York Harbor, William Varhol stopped off Wednesday to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol on Shady-side Avenue. He has been training for some time at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Duffy from northern Michigan were Wednesday and Thursday guests of their daughter, Mrs. Herman Schult of Shady-side. Harold McVicar and his son, Harold, Jr., of Shady-side Avenue arrived home Wednesday morning from a few days of deer hunting in northern Michigan. Don Bohlinger arrived home from West Branch with a fine young buck. Mrs. Grace Simpson of Mayfield is rather "under the weather". Mrs. Cecil Willet of Mayfield the buck she got on the first day of the hunting season, and is remaining north until Sunday with her husband and the Chevys, who hope they, too, may have some luck. George Welsh, who accompanied friends on a hunting trip to the West Branch area, arrived Wednesday evening and at his residence on Mayfield Avenue has been cutting up and putting away a fine lot of meat. Leslie Bolyard of Hubbard Avenue, his son Norman and his step-daughter, Mrs. Young returned home Wednesday from several days of deer hunting near Gaylord. Mrs. V. C. Reddy of Shady-side Avenue has developed a painful case of flu. Julius Walt of Farmington Road is giving boys boxing lessons under the sponsorship of the Department of Recreation. Mrs. Al Moger of Shady-side Avenue has been a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac for a month, was transferred to Harper Hospital in Detroit Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kauffman of Mayfield Avenue left last week end to do some deer hunting in northern Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Reddy of Shady-side Avenue opened their home for another square dance party last Saturday evening. A large number of men and women enjoyed the affair. The Lyonna Methodist group held a successful square dance party at the Farmington Town Hall last Friday night. One day last week Louis Graham of Mayfield Avenue captured an opossum. The animal was mischiev bent; since it had already dug a hole into the chicken house of the Bolyards of Hubbard Avenue, is one of the most recent indexees from this area. When last heard from he was headed for an army camp in Texas. Mayor Ziegler, Harry S. Wolfe and nearly all of our city officials have been off on hunting trips. Cards received from the State Game Commission, vacating in Florida, indicate them to be greatly enjoying their stay. Mrs. Edna McShane, from near Northville, was a guest at week end of Mrs. Grace Simpson on Mayfield Avenue.

Floral Park Civic Association News

W. L. BURKE Phone Farm. 1054-J

In order to make the next issue with this column I have to meet the deadline of noon Monday, and I must get this in to The Enterprise no later than Sunday night. Because of this I am unable to give you any results of the activities of Monday night's Council meeting. Many subjects are covered at the Council meetings and the more important results are given you elsewhere in The Enterprise, but the ones I want to tell you about are the ones which directly concern you as residents of Floral Park. For example, the Council is considering the matter of passing an ordinance limiting the weights of trucks which use residential streets throughout the entire city. Every progressive community has such an ordinance for the protection of its citizens and their property. Heavily loaded trucks shorten the life of pavement, create traffic hazards and unduly have a nuisance value as far as noise is concerned, and it is generally undesirable to have through trucking on residential streets. Other communities have recognized the necessity for such an ordinance, and the need has been called to the attention of Farmington's lawmakers, and it is assumed they, too, will recognize the need. As mentioned in my last column that Civic Association representatives would be contacting all of you regarding your contribution to the wonderful United Fund drive now going on in this area. You've read thousands of words on the great work this organization is doing, so there is no sense in my talking any more about how important it is. We will all be knocking on your door this week so those of you who have not already contributed will have the opportunity of so doing. Going door-to-door means, so respect the caller courteously whether you contribute or not - remember that he or she is a volunteer worker donating valuable time to a worthy cause.

I'll be talking to you again. In the meantime be considerate of your neighbor and you'll automatically be a better citizen.

Barnyard Economics To Be Topic Of Discussion

Income taxes and dairying for profit will be discussed for and by farmers at 78 county and area farm management meetings planned by Michigan State College in cooperation with county agricultural agents and Michigan bankers. The series is called "Barnyard Economics" and will cover such things in the farm outlook, income tax, farm records and the profitable operation and management of a dairy herd. James Doneth, Extension Director, and Richard Hartwig, MSC extension specialists in agricultural economics and farm management, will serve on teams for each meeting. They will give the 1953 outlook in farming. Area farmers will be interested in the public meetings which are scheduled for Oakland County on December 16 and Wayne County on February 17. Income tax legislation will be discussed to give farmers the changes in the law and its interpretation. The new MSC farm income tax record books will be reviewed. The books will be distributed by county agricultural agents and bankers. The sponsors of the farm management meetings hope farmers will make them family affairs.
