The Sunshine Lady
FIND HAPPINESS
NOT BY SEEKING BUT BY BRINGING

May we find happiness not in seeking it, but in bringing happiness to others. Especially to those who stand closest to us... It's wonderful to be able to fall asleep at night, in the consciousness of what we have honestly tried to share ourselves with our fellowman.

Many of you will remember Kay McCoy, who a couple of years ago did so very much for the shut-ins in this area. I'm wondering how many of you know she is the sweet voice "Laura," heard each week day over WWJ from 2:00 a.m. to 6:00 a.m. I'm sure she would enjoy a card from you.

Another special person who would enjoy a note is my friend "Bates." He tells me it would make him very happy to be able to play a special song for any Farmington folks needing cheer, or with a special day coming up, on his program, "Club 1130" over WCAR, Pontiac, from 2:00 to 2:30 p.m.

Remember my asking you to help Mrs. Fred Crawford, Union Street, Milford, celebrate her 100 birthday? Does it seem possible that that was three years ago? Today Mrs. Crawford is doing just fine. Isn't that wonderful?

And do you remember Helen Ellinger, Box 166, Warren, Michigan, who was stricken with polio four years ago? At the time she was so badly in need of cheer. Many of you wrote to her. I'm sure you'll be interested to know things are looking so much better for her. Still unable to use her arms or legs, she can get in a wheel chair. A very pretty young lady, with your prayers and cheery notes, she will still regain her full health.

Wilbur Lyman, 9 Tenney St., Mettuen, Massachusetts, has spent most of his life in a wheel chair and would enjoy some pen pals from this area. He enjoys view cards.

Mrs. Ivan Ferguson of Keego Harbor, Michigan, has been confined to her bed most of the time since last March. She would enjoy a friendly "Hello".

Mrs. Evelyn Kasten, who has several friends in this area, is a busy young mother who sometimes gets lonely for some extra news from home. Why not drop her a line, sent in care of Bible Baptist Seminary, Fourth and Throckmorton, Fort Worth, Texas.

Volunteer workers are still needed at the Pontiac State Hospital. Here is an opening for folks with home movies to bring a great deal of cheer.

Have you a good story teller, or just able to lead a group in singing. Call or write Miss M. Parish, director of Social Services, Pontiac State Hospital, Pontiac, Michigan, for more information.

Cloth bags which can be tied to the bed, in which toys can be placed, are needed at the Kenney Polio Center, Telegraph Road, Pontiac.

To have a friend is to be a friend, and what nicer friend could you have than one that is shut in, like just from a friendly "Hello". Remember such a friend today with a note.
