Intramural Cagers To Reorganize League

Intramural basketball leagues A and B are being reorganized at Farmington High School.

Intramural adviser Mr. William Pense said that the reason for the reorganization was to prevent forfeits. Pense said the same number of boys will participate in the intramural program.

League A will be reduced from four teams to three teams by dividing the fourth team among the other teams. League B will be reduced from five teams to four.

ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

Well we finally have the new president, we've been talking about these last two months and we sincerely hope and pray that he'll do himself a fine job for this nation or ours. Perhaps he'll even do something about our dirt roads, something that would be of a young first-grader. This first-grader, what with the weather and all, decided the time had come to take advantage of the new president appointed by the school. Needing some change with which to purchase these lunches, she stepped up to the "canteen-provider" and said, "Daddy, this week I'll need about a dollar's worth of money, please. . . .

There's been many a time we've wished for a dollar's worth of the stuff, too, and have always figured you people who purchase these beautiful studies we sell in this establishment are the ones who benefit the most, because you really do get so much extra for every dollar you spend here. In just a little while we'll be ready to show you the most beautiful in the United States we know, we saw a preview the other day! You'll love it, it's beauty is breathtaking. However, just a few days ago we learned that there are now fifty-two models still available, plus a salesman's demonstrator and the money you can save on any of these is almost tenfold. If you would like to make a real great big savings, come on over . . . but you'd better hurry.

A couple of friends of ours, a young man and a young woman, drove in the garage the other day so we naturally went over to give them a great big hello. We tried to brag about the new studies, but the young man showed us in on tracks by bragging about the new house, into which they had just moved, and their wonderful accessories. His wife had just come across the "why" in "why," he dechanted, "there's an automatic dishwasher, automatic washer, dryer, ironer, automatic everything. Well, man, she lives the life of Riley."

Then noticing that his ever-loving spouse wasn't listening too kindly to his rapt descriptions, asked him, "What's the matter, don't you like it?"

"No," said she, with a bit of automatic lie in her voice, "I'm waiting until someone invents a gadget that will button toast faster than you can eat it."

Well until someone invents an automatic oil changer and car lubricator, we suggest that you bring your car in to us. It's just for a bit of old-fashioned mechanical labor. The car needs a regular check-up and waiting for some new parts to come in is a waste of time. Besides, we think the motor of your car can stand a bit of tune-up about now, and it's up to you to do something about it! How about getting these mechanics of ours soon. Besides, they get home faster.

That's the last bit as a gal we know observed the other day. "He may have come from a fine family, but why does he have to be such a long way from home?"

Yours,

TROJAN QUINTET POSTS FIRST WIN OF LEAGUE PLAY

The Clarenceville Trojan basketball team romped to their first league victory of the current season by defeating Holly 55-45 in a close, hard fought game. This victory enabled Clarenceville to move out of the W. O. C. League cellar, one game ahead of Holly. The Trojans now have 11-5 league record and a 2-8 season record.

Clarenceville's hope for victory seemed dim early in the first period as Holly took an early lead; which they greatly increased to 17 points at the end of the period. Holly tallied 21 times in the first period while Clarenceville had 15.

The Trojans' shooting became more efficient in the second period as they scored 22 points while holding their opponents to 11 points.

Clarenceville's big drive was sparked by Tom Ruttell, who brilliant scored 9 points, and Bob Townsend, who tallied six times in this big period. The score was at 35-35 at intermission, and the second period was a struggle. Holly's lead considerably, the score being 32-27.

The Trojans resumed their attack in the third period as they were able to slice Holly's lead to within one point at the three-quarter mark. The Trojans outscored Holly in the third period 14 points to 11. Kilteen and Ruttell led the offensive charge in this period as Clarenceville trailed Holly 42-41 going into the final period.

The Trojans poured it on both offensively and defensively in the last period as they were able to overcome the faltering Holly team and take the lead.

The Trojans racked up another 14 points in the last period as they held the opposition to mere 3 points.

High point man for Clarenceville was Tom Ruttell with 13 points and four for Brown. Bates put in eleven out of the team's twelve point total.
