

PICTORIAL NEWS REVIEW

FERRIED OVER, HE'LL WALK BACK—Dobbin, junk cart horse of Boston, Mass., and his driver, Schaffer, pay their ferry fare for the last time and get ready for the final ride across the river on the East Boston "Penny" Ferry. Discontinued after 120 years, the "Penny" ferry, running in the red, went to sea for the last time. It made its first trip in 1832.

MAN AND BOY UNDER THE McCARRAN ACT—Polish alien Henry Kernkraut, of New York, holds his two-month-old son in his arms as he reads rules regulating his registration under the McCarran Act. The law became effective Dec. 24 and requires all aliens to register between Jan. 1 and 31 or face deportation.

LIVING FAUNA FOSSIL—Holding a struggling remnant of the living fauna fossil, Nicholas Olandi, in charge of the United States Coast Guard Station on Mona Island, Puerto Rico, grins at his teeth. The remnant's name is Giant Iguana and it is a member of a reptile group, most of which have been extinct since prehistoric times. Native to the island, the creatures are as big as dogs.

Athletic Association Plans March Carnival

Dancing, a fun house, a floor show, boxing and wrestling matches—these are only a few amusements that will be found at the Athletic Association's March Carnival, March 18, in the Farmington High gym. This carnival, under the faculty supervision of Mr. Warren Piche, has been promoted and planned by the association to aid the increasing deficit in the organization.

"We would like every class or club of the high school to sponsor a concession of some type," Mr. Piche stated.

Definite committees have not yet been formed for this event, which is scheduled to last from 2:00 p.m. until about 11:00 p.m.

THE TEENAGER

AND THE PRESS

The Blue and White is being written by the students and parents for the past several years.

In almost any magazine or newspaper one can find an article of teenagers and how they act.

Some of them are about

reckless driving,

and there are others

that even say it is normal for teenagers to have their parents.

A lot of parents who have teachings judge all teenagers by their experiences with them.

Consequently, especially on this subject, are not good.

So many adults say teenagers make terrible drivers. What would some of these people say if they didn't have this so-called terrible driver to do their errands for them? It is true that teenagers get in many accidents, but for that matter, so do adults.

Many articles written by parents say their children are so lazy that they can't get up to do a thing in the line of work.

They just laze and never want to cooperate. If this younger set is so lazy why is it that so many of them make top honors in school?

Also why are so many of their school activities called a success

if they don't cooperate?

Dances, plays, assemblies, etc.

cannot be put on without cooperation

among the students.

When teenagers read articles about their reckless driving, laziness and so on, they may think why they want to live up to what is said about them, whether good or bad. Perhaps if more articles were written on good points of teenagers maybe they would take head to them and try to follow them.

Teenagers finally grow up to be adults so the adults are setting the example.

SENIOR - FACULTY

BASKETBALL GAME

TO JANUARY 31

The annual Senior - Faculty

basketball game will be held this

Saturday, January 31, at 7:30 p.m.

The faculty has beaten the seniors for the past three years.

There will be a dance sponsored by the Activities Department following the game and this is in addition to the price of the ticket

for the game.

Some female students are planning to act as cheerleaders for the faculty team.

JUNIOR SEES HUGE TELESCOPE ON TRIP TO WEST COAST

The biggest telescope in the world, at Palomar Observatory and the Bahia resort were only a few of the many things that Kay Holcomb saw last summer

when she vacationed in California.

Kay, a junior, visited Black Fox

Academy in Los Angeles, Lake

Arrow Head, and Lake Big Bear

Resort, where swimming, skating and skiing are only a few of the many sports available.

She visited the famous

Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood.

Kay said her vacation was the most interesting and the most memorable that she has ever had.

She plans to visit California

again next summer and in later years.

First Trip Club Organized In '49

Farmington High Trip Club was organized by the class of '49.

At this time the club was a part of the senior class.

In 1950 Miss Margaret Lingo

suggested that this club be a separate organization and students pay for their own trip as raising money through the class proved to be a tough struggle.

The Board of Education approved this proposal and it has been the policy since. To change this policy the Board again would have to approve.

The first trip club advisors were

Miss Margaret Lingo, Mr. Tarmo

Maatta and Mr. Byron Oliver, chief advisor for the class of '49.

Students And Parents To Meet Representatives

Farmington High will participate in a new program "College Night" at Walled Lake High on Wednesday, February 1.

All junior classes and their parents will speak.

The students will receive room locations where they can meet the various representatives at the door.

Each year the schools will rotate location of the "College Night" meetings.

Students, juniors or seniors, are requested to get a registration blank from Miss Buck if they are interested.

P. S.K.

will be held in the gymnasium at

the Michigan State College.
