Scouts To Divide Clinton Council

A decision to divide Oakland Circle District into two districts was made by unanimous vote of District committee members and unit representatives when they met this week. This group, which is responsible for the operation of the Boy Scout program in twenty townships of Oakland County, met this week at the Clarkston Community Center with District chairman Kenneth Sanderson in charge.
The decision to create the two new districts was reached after months of careful study by a representation headed by William Barnum of Farmington. The committee report suggested that the division take place along Pontiac Lake Road to its end and then along White Lake, Springfield along the White Lake, Springfield Township boundary. The committee suggestion was adopted without dissent.

Scouts To Divide Clinton Council

The division gives each new district one-half of the units now registered in the Oakland Circle District although the territory is not evenly divided.
Reorganization chairman was appointed for each new district with Nicholas Lap appointed to this position for the southern portion and Francis Collins for the Northern Oakland portion. This division will complete the organization of the Oakland Circle District into two new districts. A meeting of each of the new groups on March 12 will be held to clarify the organization, elect a district committee and complete plans for the annual meeting and election of officers.
Among other items of business was the appointing of a Camporee committee with Robert J. Lundberg of Farmington as chairman, assisted by William Pascher of Gregory Road, Noland Drive of Walled Lake and Claude McKinnon of Williams Lake.

Scouts To Divide Clinton Council

A three-year old training award was presented to Richard Soover, Scoutmaster of Troop 49, Clarkston, for his service and training record. After a brief report on the table was read and journaled for refreshments served by the Den Mothers of Pack 49, Clarkston.

Scouts To Divide Clinton Council

The World Day of Prayer will be observed at the First Baptist Church of Farmington on Friday, February 20, at 1:00 p.m., as the local church is host to area congregations.
The following churches will take part in the observance: Clarkston Methodist, Clarkston Presbyterian, Southfield Presbyterian, Northville Baptist, The Assembly of God, Wixom Baptist, and Gaylord Baptist.

Scouts To Divide Clinton Council

The program "We Kneel to Conquer" has been prepared by the National Association for Evangelicals. The Rev. Elsie Johns has been selected as the main speaker.
Committees in charge of the observance are Mrs. Harold Martz, general chairman; Mrs.
Leon Bury and Mrs. Donald Schaefferburg, music; and Mrs.
Port Schaefferburg, refreshments.
Women of the community are cordially invited to attend the program and the tea which will follow.
