TAIN'T NO USE - -

Per us to sit here and tear our hair out by the roots or chew our finger nails off clear up to our elbows just to find something to sell yuh cheap. After we got thru all that somebody'll have it cheaper and then somebody else will undersell them. Once we read someplace that a man shouldn't worry what his competitor sells for cause each man should know what his merchandise is worth. Yuh know some of us guys around here bin workin' together fer nigh onto nine years and it still gives us a thrill when the kids come home from college and all stop in to see us - or some of our veterans come home from Korea and come down here and spin us a yarn or two. Yuh know we aint kiddin' yuh cause you've been in the store when it's happened - so all in all we figger we can't be too bad a bunch - that our business does have a little personal touch. Now what do you think?

We still do have to tell you about somethin' so after some scratchin' around we believe we'll give yuh another whirl at that albacore tuna at 3/$1.00. It was a new brand to us but we've bin told now by them that tried it that it is the best they've ever eat - that the tuna is real white and has a grand flavor so it's worth every penny of it. If yuh want some red salmon we got some fancy red in a tall can fer 69c each. If you aint had sauer kraut lately we figger maybe you'd like a big can of Silver Floss kraut fer 19c to go around some spare ribs or neck bones or pork chops. You name it - we got it - the spare ribs are 49c a lb. or the neck bones are 15c a lb. or the pork chops are 35c a lb. Or do yuh wanna make a pot of soup? Fer that there's some rib boiling beef fer 15c a lb. New yuh gotta have a carrot so take a lot - take 3 bunches fer 25c. We got all the other vegetables fer soup but we aint got room to mention 'em cause we do wantcha to know we have Vlastic butter this week end fer 69c a lb. and some picnic hams fer 39c a lb. Course it aint very nice fer a picnic cause the aints ant out yet but guess it won't be long on account of this is the month what has the first day of spring in it - and then all the people start limpin' around with sprained heels. Don't you know why - well - stop in and we'll tell you.
