this week a lady brough so this week a rady brought her '50 Studebaker in this ga-rage of ours and announced she wanted one of our beautiful '53 wanted one of our beautiful '58 Starlher coupes Of course we took care of such a want with utmost haste so now she is driving what is perhaps the finest coupe ever turned out by any manufacturer. Before she left, though, she registered a bit of complaint, not about us of course, but about her job. Seems she passes her working day educating the young in the first grade of one of the local bastions of knowledge and had trouble in getting the future of America to properly recite the alphabet. "They manuged abed all right," she said, "but for the life of me, I can't stop them from saying q-r-s-TV."

Incidentally we've heard a ru-mor that some of you have had trouble in getting the Stude-baker of your choice. We'd like baker of your choice. We'd like to go on record right now of GUARANTEEING delivery of the particular Studebaker you choose. There's certainly a lot of beautiful models to choose from in the line for '33 what with the hard-top convertible star-liner coupe and two and four door sedans in both the Champlon and Commander lines, plus the big Land Cruiser that comes in the Commander model only. No matter what you desire, there's a sleck, roomy, powerful, economical Studebaker to met your every need.

Fellow in the garage this a.m. had a flock of observations to get off his chest, some of them about the weather, "Yesseree," he says, "this is the time for kites, jumping ropes, marbles, baseball and unexpected blizz-
