

Examining New C. H. S. Yearbook

C.H.S. Students Presented Awards At Annual Honors Assembly

The final assembly of the year, sponsored by the Student Council, was held Tuesday, June 2, at 2:00 p.m. in the Clarenceville symposium. The program was opened by Council President Howard Goers, who introduced Ellis Grace and turned the assembly over to him as master of ceremonies, to conclude the second and final part of the annual Honors Assembly. "The Star Spangled Banner" was played and then the student body pledged allegiance to the flag.

The first award presented was the attendance award, by Mr. Arthur Mann. The people who received the award were: M. Wilson, J. Divine, R. Lopatz, D. Mitchell, P. Stevenson, R. Stickner, K. Tucker, G. Wilson, M. Shuffett, L. Bidwell, V. Clark, K. Jacobson, and L. Wilson. These people have had a perfect attendance record throughout the school year.

The track awards were given by Mr. Maurice Prottinger, track coach. Boys receiving letters were: Seniors: Don Kaang, who was regional half-mile champion; Bill Lawerson, shot put; and Ralph Gault, who ran the 440. Juniors: Bill Myers, who is conference champion in the 180 hurdles; Leland Wilcox, who ran the mile race in the conference; League and State track meets; Patrick Killeen, high jump; Mel Koch, shot put; Kenneth Jacobson, miler; John Ferris, miler and high jump.

Scholars receiving track letters included Richard Robenault, pole vaulter; Donald Douglas, in the medley relay; and Lawrence Westburg, pole vault. Freshmen were: Gene Garlin, who ran in the 440 in the conference and regional meet; Nelson Todd, medley relay; and Pat Loomis, who is manager of the track team.

The V. F. W. essay awards were presented by Mrs. Chester Menendez, who is from Farmington. Students from Clarenceville receiving the honor were: Elyn Grace, Carol Hartwig and Donald Kaang, winners of first, second and third prizes, respectively.

Mr. Markell's chorus then sang a selection entitled "My Grandfather's Clock".

Continuing on with the program, Miss Betty Lou Meyers gave out the G.A.A. letters and awards. Emblems went to Claudia Boyce, Janet Loomis, and Gloria Schuhmacher. Numerals went to Carolyn Pence. Four inch letters went to Marilyn Burkin, Joyce Paul and Wanda Menke. Six inch letters went to Mary Lou Barnes and Nancy Jenkins. A silver pin was awarded to Mary Lou Barnes. Gold pins were presented to Anita Allan, Shirley Marech, Joan Melton, Pat Nagle, Ruth Robertson and Beverly Shaw.

Those receiving Student Council pins and awards were: Diana Benson, Joyce Cook, Beverly Kowalski, Donald Melton and Glenn Reed. They were presented by Mrs. Winifred Mummery. Mr. Stanley Irish, assistant superintendent, gave the scholastic

A FEATURE

Writer Follows Seniors' Careers

Graduation is just around the corner and you, the seniors of 1953, will be marching down the aisle to get your diplomas. As the solemn march begins, thoughts of your high school days race through your mind. In a few short hours the doors of high school will close on you, and you will be on the outside looking in. For seniors, school wasn't much fun, and they are glad to be out.

But most are wishing they were starting as lowly freshmen again, with all the memories ahead instead of behind. What will it be like when you are out in the world making your own living, using the knowledge you have acquired in high school? Some will end up working in dime stores because they did not take the courses they should have, but others will be the future scientists, doctors, lawyers and housewives of America.

The memories of the freshman days come fading through your minds as you think back. Remember when you first started high school? What big deals you thought you were? Remember your first football game, your first dance and for some your first prom and J-Hop? Remember the clubs you joined, G.A.A., speech, debate and all the others? Oh, yes, seniors, you had a happy freshman year.

Another year rolls around and you are a little more mature. Things go smoothly in your sophomore year and you were busy making money for your senior trip. All the fun you had on those paper drives and the parties afterward. Now you get a little restless and impatient for school to be out.

At last you are mighty juniors. The year starts off with the planning of the J-Hop, which is a big success. Remember all the squabbles you had with the sophomores, the bitterness that turned into true friendship in your senior year? Yes, now you are seniors. At the beginning of the year everyone insisted you have senioritis, but, of course, you haven't. The year seems to fly with all the activities you have. The last football game, basketball and the senior play, parties, the awards to Daphne Curtis, Kenneth Jacobson and Donald Melton. Beverly Shaw was awarded the Citizenship Award by Mr. Max Miller.

The chorus then sang, "Country Gardens". Following the chorus selection, baseball letters were distributed by Mr. Harry McKelrick. Those receiving the awards were: Glenn Evans, D. Johnson, Gene Patterson, Larry Kuhls, James Merlans, next year's captain; Mel Myers, Clay Robbins, Patrick Killeen, Thomas Rutlia, Mel Koch, Glenn Reed, Robert Gross, Doug Savala, Duane Ruy, Robert Snell, Donald Douglas, Robert Soop and Manager Louie Doris. Nathan Farrar was awarded a letter for all the help he has given to the baseball and track teams.

The microphone was returned to Ellis Grace and after the school song was sung, the assembly was dismissed.

Remember that soft conditioners, the best on the market, can't put your soil in condition. All a conditioner does, say MSC scientists, is to keep soil in condition after you work it up.

YEARBOOKS ON SALE

The 1953 yearbooks arrived last week and went on sale June 1 in the lower hall at noon. The price of the yearbooks was $2.00. The yearbook contains the pictures of the classes and other activities such as debate, journalism, chorus and band and others. It also has the Class With in which seniors bequeath something to the juniors. Other snaps are included also.
