

CONTINUE SURVEY OF SANITATION IN TOWNSHIP

Township officials announced this week that work is progressing on the enforcement of the health ordinance and the elimination of unsanitary conditions in the area.

Thomas Tardy, sanitary and zoning inspector, stated that most residents are cooperating in correcting the conditions. A survey of the township is continuing in an effort to enforce the existing ordinance. The county is cooperating with township officials in the survey.

In the meantime, A. G. Leonard, Township Attorney, is reviewing the present health ordinance in view of recommending certain changes. He is expected to have a report ready for the Board in the next few weeks.

(Continued from Page One) games in the evening baseball program each Tuesday and Thursday at 5:30 p.m., starting Tuesday, June 23. Mr. Warren Piché, high school baseball coach, will serve as director.

Registration in the Clarenceville area will be conducted Monday at the Clarenceville High School and the Edgewood Elementary School. Youngsters are requested to register at the playgrounds. Registration will be held at the following times: the Farmington State Park, 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in a game called during the fifth inning on account of rain. Harvey Chapman, who relieved him with one out in the fifth, The winners collected ten hits off the combined offerings of Chuck Thomson and Jim Chalmers.

The preceding Friday had been a different story, however, as Thomson took the hill for the Tigers. The Farmington Dairy Yanks and the Blakelee Chevrolet Cards were tied for first place in the Little League standings as of Tuesday, June 16.

The Cards won a pair of games during the week to deadlock the race. On Thursday they edged the Star Cutters 6-5, as Cliff Simons basted Bob Hug on the mound, and on Friday they beat the Yanks, 7-2, in a game called during the fifth inning on account of rain. Harvey Chapman, who relieved him with one out in the fifth, The winners collected ten hits off the combined offerings of Chuck Thomson and Jim Chalmers.

Zoning Meeting

(Continued from Page One) in discussing the proposed change of a portion of the Anahl Hotels property from residential to commercial. A number of residents asked for a clarification of the proposed depth of the planned commercial area.

There was also considerable discussion on the amendment allowing the construction of mobile homes. Most of the objections expressed at the meeting were in opposition to the amendment. Other amendments discussed were the proposals to allow the use of a trailer on farms for the owner or his employees and the depth of front yards in industrial and commercial zones as well as the requiring of fire proof construction of exterior walls of industrial buildings.
