IN THE POCKET
By W.W. EDGAR

This is a big week for all star women bowlers of the entire metropolitan area. Starting Wednesday, they will storm into Las Vegas, Nev., bent on shuffling the standings in the Women's International Bowling Congress Tournament—and they're just getting to it.

Heading the group will be Anita Cantaline's Jac-Ro team; winner of the Bowlerettes championship, and having Silvia Tooper in its ranks. With it will be the Belman Lanes team, winner of the Ladies' Major League crown, and young stars such as Penny McLain and Kathy Springs.

Anr Setlock, instructor at Garden Lanes, who anchors the Thunderbird Inn team, also will be on hand with her mates to bid for a sizable portion of the prize money.

George Bashira, owner of Wonderland Lanes, all smiles these days—and for good reason.

His team, captained by Denny Feloni, made a strong finish to capture the Westland Bowl Classic crown. To win, the Wonderland team beat out Victor Park and Redford Bowling-Sales in that order.

Bob Garrett shot his way to the high average honors with a 206, while Jay Denny's 208 held up as high single for the season. Harry Fill's 747 was credited as the high series, even though Bill Spargo had posted a 752. It was noted that Spargo hadn't bowled a sufficient number of games to be classed as a regular.

With a 65, Don Denham topped the field in the Garden Lanes Classic. With this count he beat out Gordie Centwell by 10 pins while Jerry Fischer landed in third place with a 651.

Veteran Dick Preston still is leading the average list with another week to go.

The bantam bowlers put on a great show at Country Lanes before the league championship was decided by a margin of two points.

The winning team was comprised of Ron Russom, Dan Myers, Bruce Johnston and Shawn Sieder.

Warning up for the junior championship final, Kathy O'Sullivan fashioned a 197, Cliff Gordon had a 207, and Kerry Hicks a 192.

The star role, however, went to Mike Jurgan, a 14-year-old, who posted a 156 triplete.

Brian Turner was high in the Teen Classic at Farmington Lanes with a 212 in 5th. Right behind him came Steve Renner with a 214 in 5th.

Shelley Hizzo paced the girls' field with a 191 in 5th.

By the margin of a single pin, Aaron Lipschay missed the 700 barrier in the Businessmen's League at Bel-Aire Lanes. He posted a 699 that gave him a margin of 40 pins over Walt Vorheis, his closest rival.

Leo's Scolding team won the title with a 88-48 record.

Competition reached its peak in the Junior House League where only 11 pins separated the top three sharpshooters.

George Somers survived the keen battle in top honors with a 648. Steve Kilian landed in the runner-up spot with 639 and Alex Marvin trailed in third place with a 637.

By a margin of 16 points, the highest in the 10-year history of the league, the Hop-Picture Frame team won the championship in the Thursday Night Junior House League at Mayflower Lanes.

The team was composed of John Oberman, Stan Woyan, George Borysik, Bob Haron, Leo Mullins and Hugh Spencer.

Marce Bashor put on quite a show in the closing event of the Ladies' Singles Classic at Livonia Lanes. She put together games of 191, 205 and 182, for 576 plus a "spot" of 51 for 627.

Stevenson's Tom Centers put on a one-man show and Farmington High took up dropping an Inter-Lakes baseball clash.

Centers just killed us, said Farmington High Coach Richard Roy whose Falcons now stand 2-2 in the Inter-Lakes and 3-3 overall.

Stevenson scored once in the last of the third and three times in the sixth while Farmington tallied twice in the top of the seventh.

Taking the loss for Farmington was Dennis Hagen.

Hagen has been the real hard luck pitcher of the Falcon staff.

He has pitched three games and lost all three, while his teammates have accounted for only three runs for the three games.

Hagen allowed eight hits in the six innings pitched, three of four runs earned, walked two and struck out five.

The winning hurler, Centers, gave up just five hits, walked two and struck out eight.

The first of Farmington's woes came in the top of the third.

Jim Easthome had made his way to first by way of a single but was caught napping and Stevenson catcher Mark Tressler picked him off. On the die-back to first, Easthome was spilled and wound up receiving 16 stitches in the right hand.

Stevenson opened the scoring in the bottom of the inning on a single by Mark Tenby, a stolen base and an error.

The Spartans exploded for three more runs in the sixth.

With two outs, Dan Bliss drilled a three-bagger, to right field and Centers singled and moved to second on a throw to the plate. Steve Brown followed with another single to score Centers.

Bruce Economus was hit by Chargers' fifth victory against four setbacks and Churchill Coach Roger Frayer attributed the non-league win to the fine pitching performance of junior hurler Dave Panzoff.

Panzoff, three-hit Novi, walked none and struck out four in recording his second win in three decisions.

Novi saw the services of John Pantalone and Dave Brown on its mound, with starter Pantalone taking the loss.

Churchill scored in the top of the fourth.

Bobby Blaes singled up the middle for the first hit of the game, moved to second on an error and was sacrificed to first by Rick Dreher. Rod Hawraney followed with a single squeeze, Blaes scoring, and the Chargers led, 1-0.

Novi notched it at one-all in the fifth on a solo round tripper by first baseman Kevin Riley.

The Chargers bounced back to top in the sixth with two runs on three hits.

Dreher led off with a single and Jim Foster was safe on a fielder's choice with Dreher safe at second.

Hawraney singled in Dreher and Brian Kelly walked to fill the sacks. Phil Skender delivered a single to score Foster and Hawraney was tossed out at the plate to halt the rally but Churchill led, 3-1.

The Chargers padded their margin in the seventh on three consecutive walks to Swales, Dreher and Foster and a two run double by Kelly.

Redford Union tallied three times in the first inning, twice in the second and held on to defeat Trenton in a Suburban Eight baseball duel, 5-3.

It was RU's fourth league win against one setback.

Edsel Ford is on top of the Eight with a 4-0 mark.

Senior lefthander Tom Nippa went the route for RU, giving up the three runs, two of them earned, on six hits as he walked five and struck out eight. Nippa's record stands at 5-1 overall.

Trenton outit RU, 6-3, as Ken Livornois kept the RU bats in check, allowing just three hits.

Rob Campbell and Glenn Richmond mastered singles off Livornois in the second and fifth innings with the other hit a key blow in the first, a two-run homer by RU third baseman Steve Friedman.

Trenton wound up leaving nine runners on base while
