

FOR MOTHER:

"A Day Of Beauty" -- A Unique Offering

Looking for a different kind of Mother's Day gift?

A day of beauty—hair cut, style, set, manicure and professionally applied make-up may be the perfect gift for the mother in your life.

Recently, Ann Collins, enjoyed such a day of beauty at the House of Glamor Salon in Plymouth.

Pat Hann, owner of the House of Glamor, blunt cut Mrs. Collin's hair, then conditioned it because "it was dry and brittle." She styled it into "something she can keep up herself" and toned it to a more natural looking color.

Mrs. Collins was wearing a rather severe style; "I tried to give her a softer look," Mrs. Hann explained.

Make-up by Mary Lou Bloch was applied by Erika; "Make-up should emphasize good features, and wash out bad," Mrs. Hann noted. It is not unusual for Erika to make-up two dozen faces on a busy Friday or Saturday.

Mrs. Collins was enthusiastic about her new look. "I feel different," she said. "At home, my family all liked it. My neighbors weren't sure it was me."

"My eyes were made-up—something I had never done. If I could look like this all the time, I'd really feel like someone."

Mrs. Collins, who says she has extra-sensitive skin, was particularly impressed by the make-up. "It goes on a lot easier than most make-up. And, it doesn't hurt my skin."

Although she spent a good part of the day having her "day of beauty," Mrs. Collins would gladly do it again. In fact, she plans on it. So, if traditional gifts don't turn you on, a "day of beauty" for your mom could be just what you both are looking for.
