tion bill. In that year $50,000 was needed for administration expense. Each year the Legislature diverted more money until 1953 funds more than $625,000, including $124,235 for administration subtracted from the fund.

The state official was careful to question the value of the funds where the money was to be used. His objections centered on the fact that the money was being used for any purpose other than emergency use.

Although no permanent harm is done, Treasurer Drake is concerned with the effect upon local committees by the Legislature's actions. "One can hear among county committees the expression of the thought that they might just as well use the money for their own purposes as have the Legislature take the money from them," the treasurer warned. "That is not desirable thinking and the practice that promotes it should be discontinued."

Understanding was shown by the state treasurer for the plight of the legislature when he said: "We must recognize that the Legislature has been in a very difficult position. Keeping essential services going in the face of a steadily mounting deficit has not been easy. Perhaps it's safe to say that they reached for money of the trust fund income in desperation and not with the intent to make the practice permanent."

Praise is due to county committees, the treasurer added. He said they have been doing a wonderful job and that their decisions have been on the conservative rather than the liberal side. "There is a distinct advantage in having the real authority in the administration close to the people who are to receive the benefits," he said. Mr. Drake conceded local committees might have made errors but attributed them to difficulties in starting the program. He pointed out that "experience has shown that errors will be more frequent with centralized administration than with local administration."

What is the best guarantee that the fund will continue to function as originally conceived by the Legislature? Here is Mr. Drake's recommendation: All who have responsibility in connection with the administration of the trust fund -- the local committees, state trustees, and those who wait upon the Legislature -- should keep steadfastly in mind the primary purpose of the trust fund, namely to furnish emergency help to veterans so that they need not go to welfare in case of unexpected difficulty. Anything tending to prevent the accomplishment of that original purpose should be insistently avoided.

Of this committee has been worthwhile? Dr. Gidenson: Your committee has been -- very helpful to us at Brookline College because you have helped us to remove some (Communist professors) whom we couldn't do anything about under the law. Now you have supplied the evidence that made it possible to do it. I think one of the reasons why there is such a flurry in some circles about the operation of this committee is that there is so little understanding of the nature of the job done. (End of Judiciary Sub-committee excerpts.)

"The fellow travelers, who never join the Party but eagerly carry on its work, are 10 times more numerous than actual carry-overs. According to J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, the congressional records show that approximately 2,000 professors from 600 colleges have been affiliated more than 25,000 times with Communist fronts."

Not all these professors are fellow travelers, nor is the great body of American education contaminated with communism. However, a reading of the first seven transcripts of the Judiciary Sub-committee testimony will disturb the sleep of almost any American citizen. The committee is rendering a national service.

Hard cooked eggs for summer picnics, salads and cold plates on its work, are 10 times more numerous than actual carry-overs. According to J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, the congressional records show that approximately 2,000 professors from 600 colleges have been affiliated more than 25,000 times with Communist fronts."
