sance. The City Manager was also instructed to send letters to all merchants in the area advising them of the action. The police were also instructed to increase patrolling in the residential sections.

Tennant was instructed to have plans and specifications for the proposed Alta Loma sewer, now being drafted by the engineer, available at the regular August meeting. He was also directed to have the completed land survey on the proposed Farmington Road parking lot available at the meeting.

The Planning Commission was asked to recommend the name of a person which the Council might select to fill the vacancy on the Commission and have the recommendation ready by the August meeting.

The Council accepted the resignation of Mrs. E. V. Ayres, City representative on the Library Board, with regret. Mrs. Ayres has resigned because of a change of residence outside the city. The Planning Commission was authorized to proceed with the development of a Master Plan.
