

MRS. PAT NOWAK chats with Mrs. John Courville.

Serenade In Blue

FARMINGTON
The second annual Farmington Chamber of Commerce dinner dance Saturday honored the end of two years service by John Anhut and welcomed incoming president William Flattery.
Chairman John Courville was well pleased with the turnout.
The dinner was mainly for fun, with little ceremony.
Highlight of the evening were introductions by Master of Ceremonies David McCabe, who had people at their tables calling him "another Bob Newhart."

MRS. DAVID McCABE (left) was with Farmington Township Supervisor Robert McConnell and his wife.

Photos By
Ralph Evert

DAVE McCABE was the entertaining master of ceremonies.

THE GAVEL was handed to past President John Anhut (right) by Ned Oglesby, also a former president.

DANCING, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Zoedes took a turn on the floor.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM FLATTERY (right) are with Mrs. Einar Marandy. Flattery, the new chamber president, was guest of honor, and Mrs. Marandy was dance committee chairman.

ENJOYING THEMSELVES were (from left) Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weatherford, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith.