All men and young men have been invited and may secure reservations by calling Farmington 9126.

Mr. Stanley D. MacDonald, president of the Detroit District Methodist Men, will be the speaker and will present the Farmington group with its new charter.

Officers of the club state that the group will meet on the fourth Friday of each month and a varied program for the season has been planned.

A/VIC Bernard Thompson, after a two year term in Okinawa and a 30-day furlough at home, is now stationed at Turner Air Force Base in Albany, Georgia.

HALL - HARRISON
DOUBLE RING
SERVICE READ

In the Livonia Methodist Church on West Seven Mile Road Saturday evening, September 19, at 8:00 p.m., Charlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hall of West Seven Mile Road, was united in marriage to Arthur Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Harrison of Onaway, Michigan. Four bouquets of white roses and glads made the church's interior lovely for the candlelight service. Rev. Andrew Michaelson, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride's gown was white satin, with a floor length train and a finger-tip veil. Orange blossoms formed her head-dress and she carried white roses and stephanotis. Her attendant, a sister, Claudette, wore blue satin and carried blue roses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hall wore black tulle with a corsage of white carnations. The groom's best man was Charles Bonar. Ushers were Mrs. Fred Polakowski served as plant during the ceremony. Two soloists were of hand. Mrs. Leota Haddon, cousin of the bride, sang "At Dawning". Mr. Ralph Hamilton rendered "With This I Vow" and "The Lord's Prayer".

A reception in the church followed the service. About 100 guests were present. Friends of the Halls served light refreshments.

Immediately afterward, the newly-weds left for a short honeymoon in northern Michigan. At Onaway, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Harrison were to honor them with a reception at the home of Harrison relatives and friends.

Upon their return, the couple will, for the time being, reside with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall. Mrs. Arthur Harrison graduated from Bentley High School last June. Arthur Harrison is employed in Farmington.

LARGE TURNOUT
FOR P.T.A. MEET
AT CLARENCEVILLE

The program of the first PTA meeting of the year at Clarenceville consisted largely of introducing teachers to parents. Group singing and marching were led by Miss Betty Meyers, physical education teacher.

The new president, Mrs. Marion Spencer, conducted a brief business meeting and asked for the help and cooperation of all parents and teachers in her new venture, saying in all sincerity that she desires to do the job as well as has been done in the past.

A letter from the Farmington Kiwanis Club was read by the secretary, Mrs. Helen Chapel. The Kiwanis Club is seeking the support of all organizations in their "Travel and Adventure Series".

Mr. Louis E. Schmidt, Superintendent of Schools, mentioned many facts pertaining to school equipment, teachers and buses. One thing stood out clearly — the Clarenceville Schools opened the year with a full staff of capable, qualified teachers.

Mr. Schmidt also commemorated the late John C. Kennedy, well loved chemistry teacher who had served the school system for over ten years. The subject of school insurance was mentioned briefly. This insurance is to cover pupils from the time they leave home until they return. Information on the subject will reach the parents soon.

The teachers were presented with carnations — a different color for each school, thus enabling parents to find their respective teachers, and everyone adjourned to the cafeteria for refreshments.

NEW ARRIVAL

Young Patients Getting Treatment

Two young polio patients at St. Joseph Hospital Polio Center in Pontiac are shown in the circulating bath treatment at the center. Their facial expression hides the fact that the youngsters are struggling to overcome physical deficiency that doesn't allow them to follow the pursuits of other boys their age. Working over the two boys are Physical Therapist Jeanne Hyskamp and Polio Volunteer Mrs. Frank Garner.

County Chairman Pierre Delmontier and campaign director Eleanor Little of Farmington attended the second annual statewide pre-campaign conference of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis last week.

The meeting was held at Kellogg Center at Michigan State College in East Lansing on September 18 and 19.

The two-day meeting was devoted largely to setting forth the principles of a good campaign. They were set up as follows:

A. Leadership; B. Early Organization; C. Enthusiastic Volunteers; D. Complete Orientation; E. Summer Activities and F. Continuous Publicity and Promotion.

Both Delmontier and Mrs. Little have asked possible volunteers to use their heart as well as their minds in offering their services to the 1954 March of Dimes campaign in the Farmington area.

Volunteers may register by calling Farmington 2956-W.

"We have a job for everyone who calls," Mrs. Little added.

MISS ANNE COLLINS
MARRIED SATURDAY
IN MUSKOGEE

Relatives and close friends were present Saturday afternoon, September 19, to witness the marriage of Miss T. Anne Collins and Richard H. Clevinger.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Collins of Greenville, Ohio, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Clevinger, Muskegon. Mr. and Mrs. Collins are former residents of Farmington. The Reverend Thomas Pryor read the double ring ceremony.

Miss Collins' ballroom frock of white embroidered organza over pale pink taffeta was cut with a scalloped neckline. A matching hat and mitts add a cascade bouquet centered by an orchid completed her costume.

Attired in pale pink and carrying a colonial arrangement of pink and white camellias, Mrs. John D. Kelly was her sister's only attendant. Ronald J. Clevinger of Muskegon performed the duties of best man and Mr. Kelly ushered the guests to their seats.

A dinner at the Red Brick Inn preceded the couple's wedding trip to northern Michigan. When they return, the Clevingers will make their home at 22 1/2 W. South Street.

Mrs. Clevinger graduated from Alpena High School and attended Western Michigan College and the Edward Sparrow Hospital School of Nursing. At present she is employed in the research department of the Upjohn Company. Her husband, an alumnus of Muskegon High School, will graduate in February from Western Michigan College. He holds an office position with DeNooyer Chevrolet.
