people usually have full-time vocations and must make sacrifices of time and effort to serve on a commission - often at no pay.
The result is that many are reluctant to attempt to make a civil contribution when they consider the treatment they get from the legislature.

A battle has raged for years over interpretation of a term in laws which create these positions.
The governor makes the appointment "with the advice and consent" of the senate. Senators think that means they should do more advising before they are requested to do any consenting; governors (Williams and his predecessors) went on the basis that they receive less direct advice.

Auto Show Date Set For Feb. 20

M. T. "Pat" Patterson, chairman of the show committee of the Detroit auto dealers association, has announced that definite dates have been established for the D. A.
A. sponsored automobile show, to be held at the State Fair Grounds.

The show will open on Saturday, February 20, and will run for nine consecutive days, closing on Sunday night, February 28.

The installation of heating equipment in the large cattle barn making a total of upwards of 150,000 square feet of space available for the coming automobile show. The Agricultural Building, Agricultural Annex, Cattle Barn, and the collection will all be devoted to the show. The Coliseum will be utilized for an elaborate stage production which will provide one of the highlights of the show.

This will be the 41st automobile show sponsored and staged by the Detroit Auto Dealers Association, and the special show committee composed of Pat Patterson, Al Rogers, Ed Schenberger, Omar Stout, and executive vice-president Paul Graves, is leaving no stone unturned to make it the greatest ever.

The last previous indoor exhibition of this nature was staged before the war in 1940. During the intervening years the D. A. A. kept their hand active by staging a number of outdoor "Garden" type of exhibitions in conjunction with the Motor City Open golf tournaments at Meadowbrook Country Club and Red Run Golf Course.

ancial practices. History reports the decline and fall of many nations whose people were lulled into apathy toward the financial affairs of their government. Spending borrowed money and building up debt over a continuing number of years, with the resultant everyday work on the basis that the doom of these great nations.

Today in the United States, the national income is the highest in history. There is no significant unemployment. Jobs are plentiful; new businesses are opening every day. Private enterprise has demonstrated it is capable of taking up the slack as big government spending is whittled down, along with its 25 to 90 per cent taxation on incomes.

If our federal budget cannot be balanced now, when can it be balanced? I'm afraid the answer would be, never! But it can be balanced in the 1954-55 fiscal year. And it will be - if enough people who care about their future and the future of their children will speak up and act in the true role of American citizens.

Editors Plan Meeting At MSC October 30 - 31

Responsibilities of newspapers to the groups and individuals they serve will be the theme of the Community Newspaper Editorial Conference at Michigan State College October 30 and 31. The event is sponsored by the Michigan Press Association and the information services and journalism departments of MSC. Daily and weekly newspaper editors, publishers and writers will participate.

George Van Kleeberg, editor of the Zeeland Record, will be general chairman for the session.

At the opening session Friday noon in Kellogg Center, the editors will hear a homemaker and a farmer discuss "What I would like to See in My Local Newspaper." Mrs. Lynn Post, Route 2, Rockford, and Charles Davis, Onondaga, will express their opinions and a question and answer period will follow.

Shop talk discussions will be in charge of Robert Marshall, Opema County Herald, West Branch, and E. C. Hayhow, Hillsdale Daily News.

At the evening dinner, D. B.
Varnum, director of the MSC cooperative extension service, will speak on "The 3-D of Community Service."

Highlight of the Saturday session will be a discussion of "Today's Game" by Coach Bligie Munn of the Spartans at the breakfast session. A panel on "Civil Responsibilities of Newspapers" will follow with Dr. Ernest Britton, Midland superintendent of schools; James Hoekzema, Berrien County agricultural agent; and Mayor Hubert J. Brown of Marshall giving their opinions.

The closing session of the conference will include a discussion on "How Effective is Newspaper Reporting of Community Problems?" A pilot study is now under way in St. Johns to answer this question and it will be reported upon by Louis Dargman, Whitehall Forum and Meredith Clark, Vicksburg Commercial.

Gene Alleman, secretary - manager of the Michigan Press Association, will close the conference and the editors will be guests of Michigan State College in the afternoon at the Michigan State - Oregon State football game.

Modern invention has banished

STUDY MARKET REPORTS

Studying market reports and outlook information and knowing when prices are expected to be seasonally high is one way of helping make the price-cost squeeze, reminds Arthur Mauch, an MSC economist.

Two Soldiers Complete Basic

PVT. ALLAN D. HALLAMAN

PVT. GERALD W. HORN

Two men from the Farmington area completed basic training recently at the Medical Replacement Training Center at Camp Pickett, Virginia.

At MRTC, the only basic training center for the Army Medical Service, they have completed eight weeks of basic medical training and eight weeks of basic infantry training.

They are Privates Allan D. Hallaman, son of Mrs. J. J. Halla-man of 348 North Pal Drive; and Gerald W. Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Horn of 26361 Power Road.

The only team to hold the University of Detroit scoreless since 1945 was Miami of Florida, by the score of 6 - 0 in 1948.

U-M Engineer Helped In 1855 Railroad Survey

In 1855, Alexander Winchell, first professor of engineering at the University of Michigan, helped survey a railroad from Ann Arbor to Jonsville.

Since the time many members of the College of Engineering have assisted the state and industry by contributing their special skills.
This year the college is celebrating the 100th anniversary of engineering at the University of Michigan.
