

REA STUDENTS ATTEND DEBATE LINIC AF U-M

Some 550 high school debaters from throughout Michigan gathered in Ann Arbor Saturday, October 24, for a year-long debate clinic presented by the University of Michigan Department of Speech. Approximately 65 high schools are represented by the debaters, to spend their morning discussing the question picked for this year's high school debate topic. Three U-M political scientists conducted the symposium dealing with the question "Resolved That the President of the United States should be elected by Direct Vote of the People". Lloyd Smith of Farmington High School attended the meeting with students Barbara Anne, Elsie Kinsman, Tom Foley and Nancy Hodgins. Miss Joan Gullion of 26718 Olive Mile Road took eight of the Benley High School students to the meeting. Clareville state delegates included Ellis, Barbara Schmidt, Joyce Oberlake, Sharon Moreland and Roger Rapoff. The Clareville students were accompanied by Miss Anne Richardson, their instructor.

Mrs. Ed Grant, with her two daughters, of Farmington Road, visited her eldest son, Ted, in a Battle Creek hospital last Sunday. As a result of World War II experiences, Ted has been hospitalized for several years. Sunday was his birthday.

Robbie Immon, who has been a jolly patient for the last few months at Sigma Gamma Delta in Mt. Clemens, spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Immon on Hubbard Avenue. During his stay, a constant stream of visitors, young and old, came and went at the Immon residence. Robbie is getting along nicely and, in another month, may be home to stay. It is hoped that he may return to school by the first of the year.

David, youngest son of Mrs. Margaret Buckingham of Norfolk Avenue, has recovered from the virus infection from which he suffered all last week. His elder brother, Wallace, was also on the sick list. Teddy Stevens of Hubbard Avenue spent last week end with friends in Detroit.

Over the last week end the four younger children of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sandau of Hubbard Avenue were all ill with flu.

For three days of this week, Mrs. Undergrove of Flint was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Forrest Ault and family, on Hubbard Avenue.

Freda Ault of Norfolk Avenue was calling on Mrs. Nelson Cameron in Redford Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Stevens of Hubbard Avenue has been quite ill for a month. Her youngest son, Johnnie, has also been on the sick list. The Wagners of Westmore Avenue report that their new home, being constructed in Birmingham, is almost ready for occupancy.

E. C. Immon of Hubbard Avenue suffered an attack of flu this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schult, with the former's mother, Mrs. Herman Schult, and his sisters, Patty and Janet, all of Shadyside Avenue, were visiting in Bay City last Sunday.

Mrs. Howard Palmer of Shadyside Avenue was visiting with her sister in Detroit last Tuesday. Miss Georgina Reid, former school nurse of this district and who was recently taken seriously ill with heart trouble, is a patient in New Grace Hospital, Detroit, and may be there for some time. At her home on Shadyside Avenue last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Howard Palmer was hostess to a group of the Sunshine Sisters. A nice group was in attendance to enjoy an unusually fine program. Contributors to the program were Freda Ault, Mrs. O. R. Ault, Mrs. Cecil Willet and Mrs. Arthur Muir. All discussion centered around the topic of "Hallowe'en". Doughnuts and cider were appropriately served by Mrs. Arthur Reddy. The next Sunshine meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Christena Rehahn on Mayfield Avenue Wednesday, November 11, at 2:00 p.m. "Peace" will be the topic. Mrs. Arthur Muir will provide refreshments for the occasion. At her home on Mayfield Avenue last Tuesday evening, Mrs. Albert Owen entertained her W. S. C. S. circle of the Clarenceville Methodist Church. In spite of the rain, a fine group was in attendance. A plastic demonstration, with the Circle as beneficiary, proved pleasant and profitable. Before leaving, all enjoyed light refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault of Hubbard Avenue were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leo Woods in Inkster last Wednesday evening. Mrs. George Welch of Mayfield Avenue had still another attack of illness this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue were calling on the former's sister, Mrs. Clara Allier, in Detroit last Sunday afternoon.

Freda Ault of Norfolk Avenue was calling on Mrs. Charles Haas on Grand River near Redford last Thursday evening. At Mt. Carmel Hospital in Detroit, Mr. A. R. Oldham, who has been in serious condition for some weeks, is now under an oxygen tent, and friends hope he may soon return to his home on Farmington Road.

Mrs. E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue was "not so good" again this week. While teachers were attending the Institute, school children had Thursday and Friday off, thus giving extra time in which to look over the situation and plan still many teachers permitted their students, with mothers cooperating, to arrange Hallowe'en parties for Wednesday.

There was plenty of excitement on Shadyside Avenue near Norfolk last Monday. Several youngsters of kindergarten age or near had been playing peacefully together when, unnoticed by their guardians, they suddenly decided to go adventuring. Hydrated at their destination—beehives in a neighboring orchard. Mothers went running, but it was some time before the tots could be quieted. One tiny girl was ill next day.

Funeral services were held on Friday for Mrs. Lucy Nacker at the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home in Farmington. Rev. Carl Schultiz of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church officiated. Mrs. Nacker having been a member of that church. Interment was at Clarenceville Cemetery. Mrs. Nacker will be greatly missed in our community and her many friends extend sympathy to the stricken family.

OAKLAND COUNTY GIRL SCOUTS BEGIN CALENDAR SALES FOR CAMP FUNDS

Doorbells will be ringing all over South Oakland County Thursday under the professional touch of Girl Scouts, anxious to boost their calendar sales.

The goal this year is set at 22,000 calendars to be sold from November 2 through November 16.

Although Girl Scout activities are supported by the United Fund, camp needs must be financed by other means. So the money earned from calendar sales will be used to develop Camp Karria, the common camp of all S. O. C. Girls Scouts. The proceeds will also be used to provide adequate facilities for day camps and troop camping. Girl Scout troops receive a small percentage of the sales for troop activities.

These calendars feature large spaces for daily reminders, colored Girl Scout illustrations for each month, and marked holidays.

Orders are taken during the 15 days. Money will be paid upon delivery of the calendars from November 25 through November 29. If you are not contacted by a Girl Scout, you may obtain a sales territory by calling the Girl Scout office, Lincoln 3-5652, or by calling Mrs. Cox at Farmington 1769.

Mrs. Claire Hall is the general chairman of the calendar sales of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Incorporated. Mrs. S. Steele Cox, Jr., is the local chairman.

New TV Antenna Erected At M.S.C.

Another step toward completion of Michigan's first educational television station was reached with installation of a 3,000-pound antenna atop the transmission tower of WKAR-TV, the Michigan State College television station.

The completed tower, near the community of Okemos, stands 103 feet. As the tallest structure in central Michigan, it rivals New York's 1,046-foot Chrysler building in height.

A milestone in the history of Michigan State College will be reached in January, the first month for scheduled programming by WKAR-TV on UHF Channel 60.

According to advance estimates, reception will be possible within a 65-mile radius of East Lansing, covering 13,000 square miles.

Both "live" and filmed programs will be telecast by WKAR-TV. Supplementing the studio programs will be complete facilities for remote use.
