

Senior Highlights

There goes some short stuff! For a little package she sure can move along. She's rounding the bend in the stretch headed for Room 101, which is the typing class. This being her favorite class, no wonder she is holding a big, round, red apple in each hand. "Hi, Alice! You're in a hurry, aren't you?"

Now you can get a good look at her. This little package is really it. She's an exact 5' 2", high, without her apple heel glass slippers. Collecting all sorts of high heeled shoes is a hidden hobby of hers. With blue eyes, blonde hair and a big red ribbon tied around her hair, Alice Wauke is perfectly contented since red is her favorite color. Alice says her favorite foods consist of steak, mashed potatoes with gravy, peas and hot wedge salad, which has no effect on her figure because she takes a size 22 skirt.

Being born March 31, 1935, makes Alice the age of 18 1/2. As a freshman, writing letters to a half-million friends takes up most of her time. (When she's not dancing down in the basement with Richard and a few of the kids.) While studying writing letters, she has the phonograph going, listening to Eddie Fisher or Wayne King. Then maybe digging down in the pile to dig up "Beethoven's Swimming hits the spot for "Al" on a hot summer day, but when in school Alice will be there for all football games, driving her car, Hudson along with Carolyn Peave, Sally Satterfield, Judy Gardner and Mary Cashman.

One thing that can get "Al's" goat is a two-faced person, that's a good thing to keep in mind when around her.

Alice has a main ambition in life. To be a nurse for little children, and since she loves them, she's sure to make good if she carries through with it. I asked her what she was doing tonight, since she always finds something interesting to do, and she said she has a large basement she's painting and asked me if I wanted to help. I told her good-bye and consequently found out nothing more about this little package.

Who's that left guard, Number 55, making so many tackles? Well, as almost everyone knows, it is none other than Rick Ratilla, who is an outstanding athlete in football, basketball and baseball. He is co-captain of the football team and received honorable mention on his basketball ability in All-League sports.

He has red hair which he wears in a brush cut, and blue eyes. He stands 5' 10" tall and weighs all of 175 pounds. Tom is 17 years old as of last July 22. His favorite television program is "I Love Lucy" and Julius LaRosa rates tops for his favorite vocalist. His favorite subject is math, taught by his favorite teacher, Mr. Dedo. When Tom graduates, he plans to go to college to study engineering, but he hasn't decided where yet.

Tom can usually be found with his best pals, Bill Myers, Bob Grose, Bob Seel and Jim Galloway. Other firsts in Tom's opinion are the song "Dragoon", bowling, swimming, and reading various kinds of sports books. No particular girl holds his interest at the present time.

Tom has a favorite dish of mashed potatoes, steak, with a big piece of apple pie for dessert. Tom was president of his class last year and has been treasurer of the Varsity Club for three years. He is a member of the Student Council. In Tom's junior year, he was one of the four boys selected to represent our school at Wolverine Boys' State.

This brings us pretty well up to date on Tom, but before I leave you, let me warn you, Tom's pet peeve is boys who do not get out for sports. R.D.

SCOTCH ARTISTS PLEASE STUDENTS AT CLARENCEVILLE

On Monday, October 19, an assembly was held in the Clarenceville gymnasium featuring two famous Scotch artists. They were Kay Graham and her partner, Jay Morris. They have appeared in England and recently arrived in the United States for a tour of principal theaters, hotels and night clubs. They have appeared in 28 countries in the world. Kay Graham, who is from Aberdeen, is a Scotch Highland dancing champion. Miss Graham has appeared with the famous Sadlers Wells Ballet, also in many London musical shows, vaudeville, radio and television. She danced several Scotch Highland dances and ended the show with a fast Scotch Tap dance.

Her partner, Jay Morris, who is from Glasgow, has more of a comedy touch. He also has toured the world in many musical shows, vaudeville, radio, television and films. They both dressed in colorful Scotch costumes. Mr. Morris described to the audience the Scotch costume he was wearing. S. V.

Trojan Majorettes Get Set

Editorial

'Round the corner, and under the tree — the leaves are falling, the grass is turning brown and autumn is finally on its way. After a long, hot summer, and very mild beginning, fall is living up to its name.

You might say upon reading this, "Which name?" Fall is the only name of the year that has two names. The dictionary defines autumn as a period of decay or decline. It defines fall simply as Autumn, so there seems to be little difference. Whatever you choose to call it, enjoy it now, for soon winter will be pushing it out to take its place.

This is the time of year when things are beginning to take shape around the school. The seniors have ordered their pictures, and others are settling under way. Excitement is added to the curriculum as each student takes part in the activities that are of interest to him.

Concerning this, are you happy in your position? Or haven't you climbed out of your shell yet, and made progress in school activities? If you haven't, you had better hurry and take part before it is too late to receive the benefits from doing so.

As the football season draws to a comfortable close, we'd like to comment the team, a group of wonderful fellows, for the outstanding job they have done. This has been one of the best seasons Clarenceville football fans have experienced in a long time.

The boys have really held their own all season, and under the excellent coaching of Mr. Nick Ianni, they have made themselves a team worthy of honor and recognition. E. G.

Sen. Ferguson Invites Questions From Citizens

Perndale Meeting Set For November 10
United States Senator Homer Ferguson will speak at a meeting on November 10 at Jefferson School in Perndale. At the meeting the Senator will discuss some of the most-asked questions encountered on his recent tour of the state.

The meeting, which will be sponsored by the Republican Club of Southern Oakland County, will be open to the public, regardless of political affiliation.

Senator Ferguson has sold many times that he considers Oakland County an excellent cross-section of the state with its farms, large and small communities, and light and heavy industry.

Persons who have questions they wish discussed at the meeting have been invited to address them to Senator Ferguson at 918 Federal Building, Detroit 26.

Some of the questions which will be discussed at the November 10 meeting: Should the United States . . .

1. Reduce taxes before balancing the budget?
  2. Balance the budget by raising taxes?
  3. Reduce defense spending?
  4. Have Universal Military training?
  5. Keep the Taft-Hartley Law?
  6. Give statehood to Alaska?
  7. Give statehood to Hawaii?
  8. Congress investigate subversives?
  9. Continue support of farm prices?
  10. Require loyalty oaths of school teachers?
  11. Give bigger pensions to offset higher living costs?
  12. Give government aid for education where needed?
  13. Outlaw the U. S. Communist Party?
  14. Help build the St. Lawrence Waterway?
  15. Continue military assistance to Europe?
  16. Continue leading North Atlantic Treaty Organization?
  17. Remain in the United Nations?
  18. Repudiate the pact of Yalta, Tehran and Potsdam?
  19. Go on giving aid to Asia?
  20. Help France pay for Indo-China war?
- Marvin Addis, formerly of North Avenue but now of Pontiac, is reported convalescing from a severe attack of flu.

Feature Teacher

"Vaya Con Dios my darling. Vaya Con Dios my love." Well, well, well. If it isn't our feature teacher.

"Why air that must be your favorite song."

"Yes, indeed, it sure is. No one can beat Les Paul and Mary Ford at that song."

"By the way you must have a favorite singer, too."

"Oh yes, I do. Bing Crosby. He's tops."

"I'd like to interview you for the paper, so may I have some facts, sir?"

"Well, I was born July 6, 1914. I attended the Ferris Institute and the University of Michigan."

"Oh, I see. Are you married?"

"Oh yes, to a very lovely lady."

"And do you have any children?"

"Two very sweet daughters."

"You must have a pet peeve. Every one does."

"A very discourteous person is my pet peeve. They just sort of get under my skin."

"By the way, what do you like about Clarenceville?"

"The teachers are some of the nicest I've ever associated with. I like a majority of the students, also."

"Do you have a favorite food?"

"Well, just food, I guess. I like roast beef and mashed potatoes best."

"If I know you, you must have a favorite sport."

"Oh yes, football and baseball are the best. I sure like them."

"Thanks a lot, sir, I'll be seeing you around."

Our feature teacher teaches typing, bookkeeping and shorthand. If you haven't guessed him yet, the teacher is Mr. Robert Young. D. D.

F. H. A. GIRLS HOLD ELECTION, DISCUSS PLANS

Tuesday, October 20, the Future Homemakers of America met for the second time. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Joanne Doty. Duties of officers were discussed and then an election was held. Those named are as follows: Sharon Hyman, president; Margaret Sharp, vice president; Donna Del Favore, secretary; Sharon Vandenberg, treasurer; Barbara Vedder, reporter; Geraldine Schrier, historian; and Diane Benson, song leader.

The regional meeting was also discussed. It was held Saturday, October 24, with a luncheon after the meeting.

The F. H. A. have numerous activities planned for the future, including (1) bringing in an outside speaker, (2) having a plastic demonstration, (3) sending good-will boxes overseas, (4) sponsoring a dance and (5) giving some parties.

Another meeting will be held November 10 in the homecoming room. D. D.

Students Attend U-M Conference

The annual Citizenship Conference sponsored by the University of Michigan was held in Ann Arbor Wednesday, October 28. Students Council officers, advisors, and representatives of student government groups were invited to attend. The program this day had been organized around the suggestions made by representatives from schools which attended last year. Discussion groups were designed to meet the requests of students and faculty members throughout the state.

Each school is invited to send six representatives with their faculty advisor and principal. This is to permit all of the officers and additional representatives to attend. Last year approximately 1,500 students and their advisors participated. Students could attend more than one discussion group during the day.

Students attending from Clarenceville were: Ellis Grace, Sharon Moreland, Karen Russell, James Gibbs, Bruce Moreland and Mrs. Winifred Mummery, student Council advisor. P. H.

F. H. A. GIRLS ATTEND MEET AT AUBURN HEIGHTS

The Future Homemakers of America held a regional meeting Saturday, October 25, at Arondale High in Auburn Heights. Those present from Clarenceville were: Mrs. Joanne Doty, advisor; Sharon Hyman, Geraldine Schrier, Marie Thomas and Barbara Vedder.

Schools represented were: Avondale, Clarenceville, Farmington, Keego Harbor, Orion, Oxford, Rochester, South Lyon and Walled Lake.

The meeting consisted of election of new officers and the drawing up of a new constitution.

Lunch was served in the cafeteria by the Avondale High School girls. D. D.

Clarenceville Trojans Hope For Trophy

This Friday, November 7, means the trophy or second place to the Trojans. They are only half a game behind Keego Harbor and Northville, who are tied for first place.

If the Trojans beat Keego Harbor, that will put them in second place with Northville in first place and Keego Harbor in third place.

Then the following week, November 13, the Trojans meet Brighton and they have to win and Keego Harbor must beat Northville to leave the Trojans in first place in the Wayne - Oakland County League. M. G.
