Shirley Wilkinson - Lawrence Karznia Married in Candlelight Ceremony

MR. and MRS. LAWRENCE E. KARZNIA

Miss Shirley Mae Wilkinson and Lawrence E. Karznia were united in marriage at the Farmington Baptist Church on November 7 when Dr. Gordon D. Northrop read the traditional double-ring ceremony at a candlelight service. Miss Wilkinson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkinson of 23261 Farmington Road and Mr. Karznia is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Karznia of Wayne.

Miss Wilkinson's gown was fashioned of white Skinner satin and imported French chantilly lace. The gown's bouffant skirt was composed of six tiers of pleated tulle ending in a cathedral train. The bodice was styled with a scoop neckline embroidered with satin and the sleeves were pointed at the wrists. The bride's headpiece featured a fingertip length, illusion trimmed veil, which was accented with satin and rhinestones. Her veil was held in place by a Juliet cap dotted with iridescent sequins and tiny seed pearls.

As the bride was given in marriage by her father, she carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis with ivy and a purple-throated white orchid at the center.

Miss Judith Seltz, who served as maid of honor, wore a shrimp-colored floor length dress which featured a halter neckline and her stole, veil and hat were of a matching color. The maid's flowers consisted of a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Jean Hefner and Marilyn Bates were shrimp-colored gowns with square necklines, satin waists and full skirts. While performing their duties as bridesmaids, Miss Hefner and Miss Bates both carried cascades of white carnations.

Edward K. Wilkinson, brother of the bride, served as best man and guests were ushered into the church by Robert Webster of Lincoln Park and Robert Cornwell of Wayne.

Traditional organ music was played by Mrs. Eleanor Scharsburg and "Oh Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Marjorie Gail of Dearborn. Sharon Wilkinson, a niece of the bride, served as flower girl and Dobby Solano of Wayne carried the rings to the altar.

The bride's mother wore a royal floor length dress of Reseda green taffeta, which was trimmed with headed embroidery. Her gloves

CVILLE P. T. A. SEES PROGRAM ON THANKSGIVING

The Parent Teachers Association at Clarencville was presented with a well prepared Thanksgiving program by the children of the elementary schools last week. Their presentation was the result of a great deal of work and preparation — teachers, principals and children are all to be congratulated on the result. Interesting posters made by the various grades were displayed on the wall.

In the brief business meeting that followed two major subjects were discussed: First, the group voted to contribute the sum of $100.00 to the John C. Kennedy Memorial Fund. The immediate payment of $30.00 to be made toward the plaque, and the balance of $70.00 to be paid in two equal installments into the general scholarship fund.

The second important matter discussed was the "money-making project" scheduled for the month of February. Each year the P. T. A. has one program for the purpose of raising funds. Last year's program was the donkey basketball game. If there are any suggestions as to the type of project for this year, please contact either Mr. Fred Vargo at Farmington 1026-W or Mr. Arthur Mann at Farmington 1018-R. Any ideas along this line will be much appreciated.
