Trojan Quintet Loses By 40 - 38 To Brighton

Merians Paces Team With 13 Tallies

The Clarenceville Trojans lost their fourth basketball game of the current season to the Brighton bulldogs last Friday, December 18, in a hard-fought contest.

The game started slowly as Brighton took a 7 - 5 first period on free throws and one field goal, while the Trojans popped two field goals and a gift shot.

In the second stanza the Trojans battled back to take an 18 - 16 lead at halftime. The Trojans were paced by Pat Killeen and Jim Merians with 5 and 4 points respectively.

The third period proved to be the difference as the Bulldogs outshot the Trojans 15 - 6 to take a 21 - 24 third period lead.

In the final frame, however, the Trojan Five battled back to within two points of the Bulldogs, but could not quite catch them. The Trojans were kept in the game by Jim Merians and Bill Myers. Merians held the tall Brighton center scoreless in the final period while hitting for six points on two field goals and a pair of free shots. The Trojans held the lead in defense in the final period as he stole the ball on three different occasions and scored on the fast break twice and was fouled the other time.

The foul shots proved to be the difference as the Trojans hit for 15 field goals but made only 6 of 17 free throws for 38 points while the Bulldogs hit on only 13 field goals but scored on 14 out of 24 free throws for 40 points.

High point man for the game was Max Southwell of Brighton with 14 points. Jim Merians led the Trojans with 13 tallies. M. K.
