WOMEN GIVE PARTY FOR VETERANS AT DEARBORN HOSPITAL

A group of Farmington women from the American Legion Auxiliary including Mary MacCall, Ada Goers, Zella Nourjani, Dorothy Hatch, Mary Barber, Shirley Wynne and Hattie DeVriendt put on a party for veterans at the Dearborn Veterans Hospital last Wednesday, April 14.

The veteran group of 125 were given apples, oranges, and bananas, and played games with prizes of cigarettes, candy, etc. being awarded. Twenty-three men having recent birthdays were given presents of $1.00 bills.

The next project of the group will be a trip to Maybury Sanatorium to distribute monthly service baskets. The baskets contain gum, candy, stationery, toilet articles, and a host of other needs.

Some of the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary have been helping in veteran rehabilitation work since World War I and should be congratulated for performing this worthwhile service.

Retarded Child Problem To Be Topic Of Meeting

Farmington residents are invited to attend a special showing of the color sound film, "Retarded Children Can Be Helped" to be shown Sunday, April 25, at St. James Evangelical and Reformed Church, 4920 Greenfield Road, in Dearborn. The film will show what can be done to help in the training and education of retarded children.

A recorded address by Dale Evans, author of "Angel Unaware", will also be given. A panel discussion to answer questions concerning the care and training of retarded children will follow. Noted authorities on the subject will make up the panel.

In Hollywood it's difficult to tell the difference between a genius and a guy in the midst of a nervous breakdown.

Farmington Polio Patient Shares Birthday Cake

That nothing can stop a birthday party for youngsters — even polio — is proved by little Johnny Leet, extreme right in wheel chair, 3057 1/2 Thirteenth Mile Road, as he joins with other polio victims at the Sister Kenny Polio Hospital near Farmington for his birthday celebration. This is little three-year-old Johnny's second birthday in the hospital, but by next year it is hoped that he will have recovered sufficiently to have his birthday at home. Pictured taking part among the joint March and April birthday celebrants are: left to right, Lee W. Wilfong, 7 years old March 17; Mrs. Lois Anderson, sister-in-law, administrator at the hospital; Allen Rosa, 9 years old March 18, of Garden City; and Johnny.

FLOWER GARDENS AT CRANBROOK TO OPEN MAY 1

Ten thousand yellow daffodils will be on view during the first month the Gardens of Cranbrook House are open to the public this spring.

The daffodils, expected to bloom about the middle of May, were donated by friends of Cranbrook to commemorate George G. Booth's purchase of the first section of Cranbrook property. The gardens will be open from 2 to 5:30 Saturdays and 2 to 6:30 Sundays starting May 1. Garden clubs and other organizations may arrange for special tours on other days of the week through Mrs. Herbert Hall at Midwest 4-1600 at Cranbrook House.

Among other flowers usually appearing in May are flowering cherries, forsythia, grape hyacinth, myrtle, judas tree, flowering crab, cypripedium (or flowering yellow), yellow anemone (also called "Basket of Gold"), bleeding heart, suberbia, tree peony and iris.

Farmington

Girl Scout Troop 174 went on its first camp-out at Orchard Lodge in Kensington Park last week. Activities included a picnic, wet nature hike conducted by Mrs. Charles Damm, preparation of a formal dinner by the girls and the night of sleeping in bunks.

The troop is now completing plans for an apron and bake sale to be held on Saturday, May 1, from 9 to 12 a.m. at Grimes Cleaners.

Rond School Troop 181, with leaders Mrs. Larch and Mrs. Adamski in charge, recently enjoyed a hike to the home of Mrs. Jolanta on Fourteen Mile Road.

A delicious dinner was prepared and served by the hostess.

A Court of Awards followed the dinner with Lee Jean Larch receiving the Curved Bar and Roberta Tandy her First Class badge.

Games were played and corn was popped, with all having an enjoyable but tiring time.

Troop 127, the Mariner Troop, is giving an appreciation dinner on Tuesday, April 27, at 8:30 p.m. for parents and helpful friends of the troop. The girls are planning and preparing the dinner themselves.

The Bridge of Honor will follow with three girls receiving their Midship Mite pins.

Two new girls will be initiated into the troop at this meeting.

Spring Term Classes Still Open At YWCA

The Young Women's Christian Association Northwest (Center at 1728 S. Redford Avenue) started spring term this week with a few openings still available in some of the classes.

Golf instruction classes being held in the morning, afternoon and evening; trimmastics on Tuesday afternoons; conversational Spanish II, bridge, cake decorating for beginners, sewing, china painting, painted crafts, social dancing for teenagers, adults and the more advanced still have few openings.

A flower arrangement class under the direction of Mrs. McBride is to start this week. Further information or a reservation may be obtained by calling KENwood 3-6510.

Middlebelt P.T.A. Reports Card Group To Meet

A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in report card study to meet with the "Report Card" committee of the Middlebelt P. T. A. on Thursday, April 22, at 8:00 p.m. in the Middlebelt School.

Everyone interested in studying ways of educating children and the means of reporting a child's growth in education are urged to attend the meeting.
