Russell - Crawford Exchange Vows

MR. and MRS. J. CRAWFORD

Dressed in a chantly lace and nylon gown with a cathedral train, long sleeves and a portrait buckle. Jeanne Russell, daughter of Mrs. and Mr. David Russell of 21168 Whitlock, became the bride of James Crawford, 20810 Randall, in a colorful air ceremony at Our Lady of Sorrows Church on Power Road.

The bride, carrying a prayerbook adorned with a white orchid and Stephanotis and wearing a fingertip illusion veil, exchanged vows with Mr. Crawford in a service at 9:30 a.m. on April 24.

Attending the bride was her sister, Patricia, wearing a pale pink net over taffeta gown and carrying a colonial bouquet of pink roses, daisies and sweet peas. Julia Giers and Andrea Razook, dressed in matching gowns of aqua and white respectively, served as bridesmaids.

James LaPresse acted as best man with Harvey LaPresse and Joe Razook serving as groomsmen.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a byzantine blue silk afternoon dress with white lace accessories and an orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a pale green lace afternoon dress with pale green accessories and also wore an orchid.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Farmington with a buffet lunch, being served.

The couple spent a two week honeymoon in Washington, D. C., and are now residing at 33608 Shiawassee.

Mr. Crawford is presently employed with his father at Lincoln Park. Carl Stone while Mrs. Crawford works at Berling - McHugh Ford Sales and Service in Farmington. Both are 1950 graduates of Farmington High.

Mrs. Vincent Gagé, Sr. Visits Relatives Here

Mrs. Vincent Gagé, Sr., arrived last week from her home in Hot Springs, Arkansas, for a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Gagé of Parkside Avenue, Detroit, and to see her infant grandson, Pat Gagé, for the first time. She is also enjoying a reunion with her granddaughter, Jane Ellen, who celebrated her 12th birthday May 17, and her two older grandsons, Michael and Edward Anthony, Jr.

While in Michigan the Arkansas traveler will visit with her niece, Mrs. Theodore R. Kartson and Mr. Kartson of West Ten Mile Road, Farmington, and with her nephew, Garrett J. Reading and Mrs. Reading of Ohio Avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. Gagé lived here for a number of years before returning south to reside several years ago.

We owe a great deal to our government. The question is: how are we ever going to get the money to pay it?

LUELLA PARTEE NAMED TO U. OF M. HONOR SOCIETY

Luella G. Partee, 32418 North-western Highway, was one of 27 students and eight faculty members from the University of Michigan, named to Phi Kappa Phi, national honor society, at a special dinner held Wednesday, May 12.
