Scout Exposition

A "vote of thanks" has been expressed by Scout Executive Amos R. Shields to the citizens of this area for their support of the Scouting Exposition held. Statistics that released by Mr. Shields and the exposition committee indicate no official attendance of 112,000 people. Many Cub. Scout an official attendance of 112,000 people.

Many Cub, Scout and Expiore Units added considerably to their treasury through the sale of expectage of the sale of the uinted.

Another most gralifying result of the exposition was the fact that 74% of all booths were awarded blue ribbons, the top award, for excellence. With such a keen the processions, business and industry, this is an unusually high percentage," said Shields. Shields also nointed out that no Shields also nointed out that no percentage, said shietes.

Shields also pointed out that no other council had ever conducted an exposition type activity which drew as large attendance as did this year's exposition.
