Family Life Meeting Planned By GR Baptist

Grand River Baptist Church's first Family Life Conference will be held Friday through Sunday, June 1-3.

Dr. Forrest Stevenson, well known in the Detroit area as a Christian psychologist, will be guest speaker and leader of the conference.

In six sessions during the three days, Dr. Stevenson will cover many aspects of family living with reference to Christian ethics and ideals.

All in the area are invited by Rev. Errol Bosley, pastor of Grand River Baptist, to participate. The church is located at 31500 Six Mile, just west of Farmington Road.

Rev. Bosley described the upcoming conference as "a time when people get together and take a deep look at what the family is, where the family is going in today's society and how we can develop stronger family ties."

"Take a moment," he added, "to consider the problems arising in your home and bring those problems and questions you may have, or your solutions for living a more Christian life."

"We shall discuss the needs of the modern family. The conference will begin with a congregation dinner at 6:15 p.m. Friday. Dr. Stevenson will speak at 7 p.m. on "The Christian Home on Trial," and discussion will follow his talk.

On Saturday, June 2, at 7 p.m., his topic will be "Falling in Love - Staying in Love." Refreshments and conversation are planned after he speaks.

Dr. Stevenson will deliver two sermons Sunday, speaking at 10:45 a.m. on "Bridging the Generation Gap" and

A graduate of the University of Detroit and Central Baptist Theological Seminary, he has had clinical training at the Kansas City Neuro-psychiatric Receiving Center, the Lafayette Clinic and the Wayne County Clinic for child study.

He also was a chaplain in the U.S. Army and dean of education at Kansas City Bible College. He is certified by the state of Michigan as a marriage and family counselor.

Rev. Lester Kinsolving's Religion Update

Periodically, the 7,300 clergy of the 17 million-member Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod receive an impressively printed newsletter from their denomination's president in St. Louis.

The letter, from Dr. Jacob A. O. Preus, is poignantly entitled "Brother To Brother."

Ordinarily, this title could be entirely appropriate for what should be the eternally fraternal relationship which, ideally, should exist among Christian clergymen.

But there are literally hundreds of clergy who frantically embattled denunciations who regard Jake Preus' big brotherhood as something akin to the experience of Joseph (Genesis 37:12) - whose big brothers dropped him into a pit and then shipped him out of the country.

For they are the denomination's moderates - translation: they cannot honestly believe that such obvious Hebrew myths as the Jonah fish story, or a world created in 144 hours, are literal history.

Because of this, President Preus has named a number of the headquarters personnel (after solemnly promising, at the time of his election that "No heads will roll"). He has also launched a bold Holy Inquisition at one of the nation's top theological seminaries, Concordia in St. Louis - causing its very accreditation to be threatened.

President Preus comes up for reelection this July 7 at the denomination's biennial convention in New Orleans.

The embattled moderates tried to draft famed Lutheran Hour radio preacher Oswald Hoffman.

But after some months of the acute discomfort of (1) Being associated with "heretics" (2) Being a candidate who cannot campaign (3) Facing the awesome Preus establishment while being officially sponsored in his radio job, Dr. Hoffman discovered an effective out.

Faced with the requirement that he state whether he would serve if elected, he announced that he was withdrawing.

This leaving of the moderates in disarray makes Preus an even heavier favorite, not only because of the advantage of incumbency, but also because of the same machine which brought about his surprise election in 1969 - this despite the notably disparaging remarks he made about the Missouri Synod in 1964, when he belonged to the ultraconservative Norwegian Synod.

The intensity of the politicking for this Norwegian carpenter was so unprecedented in 1969 that the denomination's executive director, Dr. Walter Wolbrecht (since purged) derided what he called:

"A series of serious breaches of the democratic process ... badly bruised brotherly relations ... repeated and relentless attacks on individuals and groups ... a full bag of propaganda devices, ranging from name-calling to card-slacking to the lure of glittering generalities, transfer, testimonial, plain folks and bandwagon techniques."

Speaking of bruises and brothers, President Preus has a brother who is indeed a bruiser. Dr. Robert Preus is a faculty member at the same Concordia Seminary where Brother Jake has been conducting his Grand Inquisition.

Brother Bob also writes for a Milwaukee-published pamphlet called "Affirm" which makes more appropriate reference to the Hebrew word for "righteousness" called "Africht."

In a recent issue, Brother Bob zeroed in on one of the Missouri Synod's most distinguished (even though moderate) theologians, Dr. Martin E. Marty of Chicago. According to Brother Bob, brother Martin is guilty of writing which contains:

"As much freight in terms of hard core distortion as the most vile four letter words ... the great lie ... wrong and wicked sin against the truth and against God's holy name."

What had brother Martin done to evoke this hideous malediction?

"Missouri's president acts with a kind of authority that has to be called papal."

Wrote a rather restrained and scholarly critique in which (noted Brother Bob, furiously) he contended:

"Missouri's president acts with a kind of authority that has to be called papal."
