

LET'S GET ACQUAINTED...

November 2, Election Day, will be here in just a few days and so we thought you would like to become better acquainted with the men who have been serving you and the men who would like to serve you in the future. To this end we have put down on this page a very brief summary of each candidate's accomplishments. In addition, we have arranged for two television shows so you can see — and judge — the caliber of the men in person. Please read this page carefully and tune in on both television shows. We are proud of these men, and after reading about them and seeing them on television we feel certain you will be proud of your public officials too. They would appreciate your vote on November 2.

IN WASHINGTON

HOMER FERGUSON
UNITED STATES SENATOR

"... a worthy son of Michigan and a Senator in the great tradition of the United States Senate" is what President Eisenhower said about Michigan's Senior Senator, Homer Ferguson. Known as one of the ablest Senators in Washington, Ferguson is Chairman of the Republican Policy Committee. In this position, Homer Ferguson gave vital leadership to the fight for lower taxes, expanded social security, and the other great steps that have been taken to give us Peace with Progress.

GEORGE A. DONDERO
U. S. CONGRESSMAN — 18th District

Twenty-two active years in Congress have provided George A. Dondero with a knowledge of our country's affairs matched by few other men. Voting his honest convictions in the interest of the greatest good for the greatest number, Congressman Dondero has earned an enviable reputation for impartiality, honesty and integrity. He is a leader among the Congressmen striving to carry out the aims of the Eisenhower Administration — prosperity through peace instead of war, a stable economy, a balanced budget, and progress in the American way.

IN LANSING

DONALD S. LEONARD
FOR GOVERNOR

Donald S. Leonard offers a program of ACTION for Michigan.

1. By the summer of 1955, work must start on a huge new highway construction program.
2. During the 1955 legislative session, development of an adequate school program.
3. The immediate creation of an over-all Seaway Planning Commission to integrate all planning for the St. Lawrence Seaway in Michigan.
4. An over-all examination of the tax structure to keep the budget in balance without new taxes.

And Don Leonard, working with your Legislators, WILL get this job done!
