

Take 22 Deer In 76-Day Season In Allegan County

Michigan's longest deer season has proven highly popular with archers.

Six and one-half million Americans work in the automotive industry or businesses directly associated with it.

The season runs 76 days, from October 1 to December 15, and

The Mary Martha Circle of the Clarenceville Methodist Church will sponsor a New Year's Eve party at the church. Ham, turkey and Swiss steak dinners will be served, starting at 7:30 p.m. After the supper, a New Year's Eve celebration will begin. Communion service will start at 11:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Spies of Inkster Road spent Christmas at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gravelin, who live near Brighton.

Sandra Bassett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bassett of Albion Street, celebrated her second birthday on December 18 by having a party for her little friends in the neighborhood. Sandy received many nice presents. In addition to Dennis Bassett, those who attended the party were Pamela and Cheryl Brooks, Gail Forster, Ricky Miller, Cathy, Joe Marie and Barbara Brandywine. On Friday, December 17, Sandy entertained several of her little friends from Berkley.

The Mary Martha Circle of the Clarenceville Methodist Church held a regular business meeting and Christmas party Tuesday evening, December 28, at the home of Mrs. Perkins on Oxford Street.

The Farmington Veterans of Foreign Wars held their annual children's Christmas party at the Farmington Town Hall on Sunday evening, December 19. About 20 of Mrs. Lancaster's students gave readings. Movies were shown and Christmas carols were sung by the audience. Santa then made his appearance and presented the children with candy and toys. Santa presented Commander Courtney a check from the local Ladies Auxiliary to the V. F. W. for cream, cup cakes and coffee were served to those present.

Christmas Day dinner guests at the home of the George Cookes on Albion Street were Mrs. Cooke's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, who sold Christmas trees in this Southeast Corner, want to say thanks to everyone who stopped and looked around, visited, and often bought a tree. To everyone - thanks very much from the Farmington V. F. W. Post.

May I wish everyone a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all readers of this column a happy New Year.

Ralph Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Porter of Alyce-Kay Avenue, is visiting his parents while on leave from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Seventeen friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buncher on Sunday, December 19, to enjoy a buffet supper together. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Utes, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Halbrook, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Schwelb, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Helmsmeier, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin, and Mr. George Glesky.

The Bunchers spent Christmas Day in Bay City with their son, Wayne, accompanying them. Wayne is a student at the University of Michigan, and was home for the holidays.

On December 22, Mrs. Farrel Weber of Stansbury Avenue entertained the Ladies Forest Hills subdivision at breakfast. An exchange of Christmas ideas was held. Many beautiful projects for decorating the home were presented.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Mitchell entertained Mr. and Mrs. Steele Christmas Day. On Sunday the Mitchells held a family gathering with thirty people present.

On Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noel and family attended a Christmas party at the has no power to enforce regulations. He said the state welfare commission would ask the legislature for power to take a charity into court and seek to prevent further collections if they didn't obey the law.

Another major item sought will be discretionary power to limit the amount of the collections that the charities can use for expenses and administration.

"Most of the charities in Michigan are fine and worthwhile," Maxey said. "These provisions would enable us to protect them and the public."

G. S. Troop 258 To Sponsor Square Dance January 15

In a continued effort to raise funds for a proposed excursion to Washington, D. C., this summer, Girl Scouts of Troop 258 are now making plans to sponsor a square dance at the Town Hall on January 15.

Proceeds from the dance will be used by the entering girls of the troop to add to their trip fund.

The dance will be conducted from 8:25 to 11:30 p.m. with everyone welcome. John Van Nest of Ann Arbor will do the calling.

W.C.T.U. Meets Monday For Devotional Service

The December meeting of the Farmington Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held Monday, December 27, in the First Methodist Church with Mrs. Roy Shaw presiding.

Following group singing of Christmas carols, Mrs. John Vene-man, 15th District W.C.T.U. director of Spiritual Education, led in devotions based on Luke 2:1-17. She illustrated her talk with a scene-o-felt entitled "No Room in the Inn."

Five white ribbon results were dedicated, Mrs. Isabel Gilley reading the service and Mrs. W. H. McCullough tying on the white ribbons. The service concluded with singing of "When He Cometh to Make Us His Jewels."

Mrs. William F. Lancaster, hostess of the day and program chairwoman, presented a program of readings and a vocal trio by three girls of the Hawley family. All readings were by boys, Roy Thomson, Tommy Grose, Melvin Boring, Larry Evans and Dick Grose.

Refreshments were served following the meeting with Mrs. Don Button and Mrs. B. T. Hawley pouring. Mrs. James Widdell contributed two beautifully decorated cakes. Mesdames Windell, Grose and Noel were co-hostesses.

And speaking of the New Year, the Leonard Enroths of Middle Road will welcome it in with a party in their home. About eight or ten couples will join in the festivities.

Another party New Year's Eve will be the "Tareyton Party," made up of residents of Tareyton Avenue. About eight couples are participating in the fun. They will all go to the Vineyards for dinner and then to the home of the Milton Greenwalds for an evening of enjoyment.

About thirty couples completely surprised the Robert Hoders of Middlebelt Road recently. The party makers were members of a mixed bowling league which the Hoders belonged to while in Detroit. Refreshments were furnished by the guests, even to a lovely cake baked by Mrs. Adams which had a model plastic home atop it, complete with driveway and car, while icing and green coconut.

The Hoders were also presented with a picnic table and a check for a lawn umbrella.

Spending the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Clark Price of Queensboro Avenue, 1 Mrs. Marjorie Fahrwald. Mrs. Fahrwald arrived from Chicago a week ago Sunday.
