The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Matsen of 23008 Watt was the scene of a family reunion on Sunday, September 18. A pollock dinner was served buffet style in the yard to forty-one guests.

Guest of honor was an aunt, Miss Margaret Close, from Wiggins, Lancashire, England. Miss Close arrived in New York July 12 and was met there by her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Close, who are the parents of Mrs. Matsen. She spent part of the summer with the Close family at their cottage at Joslin Lake, dividing her time with another brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Close of Royal Oak, and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McMillan of Wyandotte.

Miss Close had not seen some of her relatives for over forty years, so the get-together was greatly enjoyed.

Dick and Virginia Matz and daughters, Cynthia, Janet, and baby Pamela, were guests Monday, September 26, of Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matz of 28505 Nine Mile Road. A birthday dinner was the occasion for celebrating. Brothers Jerry and Tommy were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matz were at Whitefish Lake for the weekend where they met old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bradshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hubbard, at the Hubbards' cottage there.

Ronald Watson, ten on September 16, had a big thrill on his birthday. He received a western money as a gift from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Watson of 23520 San Souci.

A surprise birthday party was given for Mrs. Clara Rozenboom of Byron Saturday evening, September 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rozenboom in Wayne. Approximately 22 were present to play cards and partake of barbecued hamburgers and a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Mrs. Rozenboom received many gifts to celebrate her 75th year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hervela of Nine Mile Road and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lange and daughter Judy of Nine Mile Road attended the wedding of their cousin, Charles Gates, to Josephine Contera in the Holy Trinity Church in Detroit recently. They stayed for the reception held later.

Mrs. R. H. Rich of Long Street was hostess for the Deborah Circle of the Farmington Baptist Missionary Union on Thursday, September 23. Five other evening circles and three day circles met with good attendance. The Deborah Circle worked on new dresses for the needy.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Emmett Howe of 23500 San Souci are home again after a vacation of over six weeks. They returned September 16 from St. Ignace, where they resided in their trailer house in the State Park.

A general meeting of the Glen Edwards Civic Association was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin of Raphael Road last week. More than 35 families were present, making this a record attendance for the group.

The recent incorporation of the association was explained and discussed along with a talk on the general appearance and condition of roads. Great concern was expressed over the continued speeding going on through the subdivision. It was generally agreed that road signs and speed control must be employed. Complaints were also numerous on dogs running loose.

The meeting ended with a social period. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Martin.

Norman Raupp, Jr., recently discharged from the service after two years of overseas duty, arrived home last week. Norman's father drove to Chicago to pick him up and brought him back to the family's new home on Ivywood Drive. The home here was built while Norman was stationed in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank VanLoon attended the Michigan - Michigan State game at Ann Arbor on Saturday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter.

A welcome is extended to our new neighbors in Glen Orchard, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who have moved into their new home on Raphael Road.

Dale Winston keeps his mother busy just rushing him to the doctors these days. Dale's finger had just nicely healed from a severe cut, requiring several stitches, when he received a blow over the eye in a fast game of cowboy. It was back to the doctor for more stitches again.

Mrs. Winston reports that her mother is now recuperating slowly from a serious operation.

Frank Van Loon was one of several Scouts from this area participating in a state-wide "round-up" at Bald Mountain. The boys enjoyed a week end of camping, hikes, nature lore and many other outdoor activities.

Jean Raupp was a guest of honor at a bridal shower given for her by two aunts, Mrs. Raymond Frantz and Mrs. Robert Kanowski, last week. More than 25 guests showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous gifts.

Health Educator To Talk Before Livonia Guild

The Livonia Health Guild will hold its first meeting of the season on Thursday, October 13, at 12:30 p.m. A luncheon and meeting will be held at the Rosedale Presbyterian Church at Hubbard, corner of West Chicago.

Mrs. Beatrice Mair, health educator of the Wayne County Health Department, will speak on "What Part Can We Play in Promoting World Health."

Mrs. Mair was the only representative from Michigan to the World Health Organization meeting in Chicago.

All members of the Guild and interested persons are invited. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ned Lingemann, GA. 1-6208; Mrs. Ward McCain, GR. 4-9134; or Mrs. D. W. LaFontaine, GA. 1-8390.

Grace Lutheran Church Schedules Religious Film

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Grace Lutheran Church, Grand River at Imperial Highway, is presenting the film, "All That I Have," on Sunday, October 9, beginning at 7:00 p.m. All members and friends of Grace Church are invited to attend.

Refreshments will be served in the church basement following the film showing.

Ushers for the evening are the husbands of L.W.M.L. members. Mary Woodward and Emma Baldwin assisted Pastor Victor Halboth on the committee for the affair.

publicans said was more like $13 million - could be used for a number of other pressing state needs.

But, two weeks later, the governor announced he would favor using at least $10 million to give the teachers the raise that Taylor suggested.

This development was especially puzzling to Republicans.

The word is out now for state agencies to come up with specific programs to present to the legislature.

Rep. John J. McCune (R-East Lansing) said he would sponsor the teacher raise bill, other legislators are working on their own highway safety and mental health proposals.

Republicans, charging privately that Williams is playing politics with a special session, still are reluctant to criticize the summons to Lansing.

"Right now, we think the people may want a special session, and we don't want to be placed over a barrel by Williams," said one.

McCune is also returning to the wars against beer and wine advertising.

He has prepared a resolution calling for a special House investigation of radio advertising which, he said, urged motorists to stop along the road for beer on Labor Day.

"This is sabotaging our highway safety program and must be stopped," he said.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Shades of Tom Sawyer!

Hack Willis had just stopped the tractor so he could cool off at the pump, when a young insurance salesman came up the drive.

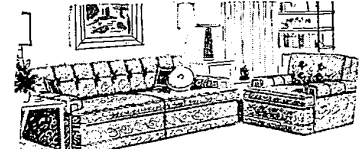

Hack was tired of plowing, and needed insurance on his new barn. But he also needed to get that winter rye in fast. The salesman, an eager kid, noticed hesitation. "I come from a farm," he said. "Why don't you look at these booklets - get all the dope - and I'll take that plow a couple of rounds for you."

Young fellow laid off a pretty straight furrow, too. It was almost dark before Hack - sitting in the shade - was able to decide just what kind of policy to get. From where I sit, to be a good salesman - or a good citizen - it always helps to "put yourself in the other man's place." He may have a different sort of job with different problems... he may prefer to close a deal over, say, a friendly glass of beer while you might prefer something else. But both of you can co-operate if you make it a "policy" to try.
