Plan Fall Wedding

BARBARA LYNN MCCOY

Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. McCoy of 22315 Halsted, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lynn, to have H. McColl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. McColl of 12536 Rutland, Detroit.

A fall wedding is being planned.

Plan Special Prayer Mission

Nightly except Saturday from January 9 through 16 at 7:30 p.m. the Clarenceville Methodist Church, Grand River at Collingham, will hold a preaching mission.

The Rev. Charles W. Cookingham, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church at Highland Park, will lead the Clarenceville Church in the week of meetings. Rev. Cookingham will be assisted by the Rev. Jack Lancaster, pastor of the Dix Avenue Methodist Church of Lincoln Park.

Rev. Cookingham is a graduate of Taylor University and Drew Seminary. Before coming to the Highland Park church he was pastor of the First Methodist Church of Calumet. He is an excellent preacher and leader.

Rev. Lancaster is especially gifted in young people's work and is a fine song leader. He is a very gifted musician. Before entering the ministry he was a trombone soloist of note.

Mrs. Paul Arenson will be at the organ nightly and Mrs. Paul Veach will be at the piano.

Present Pupils At Holiday Tea

A group of piano students were presented by Geraldine Rodcliffe at a musical tea given at her home on Farmington Road Wednesday, December 29.

Those taking part in the program were Lynne Porter, Patricia Menendez, Karen Good, Maureen Nolan, Sharon Nolan, Patricia Graham and Ronald Stocker. Mothers and friends of the students were guests.

Assisting with the tea consisted of the conclusion of the program were Misses Yolande Evert, Sharon Hoeller and Betty Amey.

A Christmas color theme was carried out at the tea-table which was covered by a green linen cloth centered with an attractive arrangement of greens and candles holding burning tapers.

This was the first in a series of musical teas given in the months ahead. The program for this term will be concluded with a recital.

Ten Mile P.T.A. To Employ New Meeting Method

A new program device, intended to encourage greater audience participation, will be employed at the January meeting of the Ten Mile Elementary P. T. A.

At the meeting on Tuesday, January 11, the audience will be asked to participate in small group discussions at report cards. The device to be employed is referred to as "role playing" and provides the audience with an opportunity to see and to hear a panel group composed of parents and teachers discuss various questions related to the problems of report cards.

The audience will then be divided into small groups to further discuss and study the problem. Records, selected by the groups, will later return to a brief general audience to acquaint the entire audience of the action taken by their groups.

A brief business meeting will precede the program, beginning at 8:00 p.m. in the kindergarten room. Refreshments will be served immediately following the program.

Modern Art Paintings To Be On Display

An opportunity to see the work of three of America's leading contemporary painters will be given by the first 1955 "Work in Progress" show opening January 11 at the Detroit Institute of Arts. The painters, each representing a different trend in modern art, are: Abraham Rattner, friend and fellow worker of Picasso and other French artists and a juror for the recent 1954 Michigan Artists Exhibition; Charles Shaw and Joseph Hirsh.

Franklin Knolls News

Ione Shuster
Mayfair 6-6518

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tardy of Fourteen Mile Road during Christmas week were Mr. Tardy's niece and her husband, Mary and Robert Haak of Santa Monica, California.

Mr. Haak was sent here by the University of California so that he might present a paper from his doctor's dissertation before the American Mathematical Society of Musical History which met in Ann Arbor. Bob is working for his doctorate at the University of California and Mary is in her second year of teaching in California.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Van Lierop on Queensboro Avenue over the holidays were Mr. Van Lierop's brother, Beril, and his wife and three children of Buenos Aires. Beril works for the U. S. Rubber Company there.

Another brother, Dr. Benjamin Van Lierop, who is a missionary in French West Africa, was here with his wife and three children. Rev. Peter Van Lierop, a missionary from Korea, presently attending the University of Pittsburgh where he is working for his Ph.D., was also a guest for the holidays. His wife is the former Eleanor Creswell of Pontiac. They journeyed to Holland, Michigan, for a family reunion - the first in twenty years. Rev. John Van Lierop came from Portland, Oregon, and a sister, Joan, was home from Wheaton College, Ill. Father, incidentally, retired last October to Holland after serving many years as a missionary to Belgium and minister of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Detroit.

If you were watching Chuck Ferguson's Ladies Day Program on TV last Thursday, you probably saw Mrs. Charlotte Rubin of Tareyton Avenue, who was the lady of the day. Mrs. Rubin was awarded this honor and presented with a corsage as a result of her association with the Junior Primrose Society and their children. In addition mentally retarded children. Mrs. Rubin is past president of the organization.

What's the NEW news in the '55 cars?

Is it V-8 Power?
Ford has had it since 1932

14,000,000 Ford V-8's have been built. This is more than all other manufacturers.

Is it Ball-Joint Suspension?
Ford had it in 1954

Ford introduced Ball-Joint Front Suspension to the low-price field in 1954. The superior type of suspension designed in 20 years.

Is it suspended pedals?
Ford introduced them in 1952

Introduced in the 1952 model, the Ford was first in the low-price field with suspended pedals. This advanced type of pedals for the driver's feet and shifter.

Is it hood-high fenders?
Ford introduced them in 1952

The 1952 Ford brought a new look to the car. The hood-high fenders, the long, low look of the car. This was a new look in the American car.

Is it oil and battery signal lights, curved instrument panel, rotary door latches, push-button door handles, power-lifts for all windows, Operdrive, Hotchkiss Drive?
Ford has had all of them, too!

The NEWS is Thunderbird Styling
It's not the look you saw in any of last year's cars. It's the new look inspired by the Thunderbird. And it's set the styling for Ford's '55 lines.

The NEWS is Trigger-Torque Power
It's trigger-quick "GO" which can obey your commands in 7/100 of a second-four times faster than you can write.

The NEWS is Angle-Poised Ride
An advanced form of Ball-Joint Suspension which not only swallows the big bumps, but also minor flaws, to make even smooth roads ride smoother.

Test Drive Thrilling Trigger-Torque in the truly new FORD!
