Clarkston Dumps Clarenceville Five

The Clarenceville Trojans were battered to defeat 54-34 last Friday evening by a powerful Clarkston quintet.

Getting off to a slow start in the first period, the Trojans fell behind and continued on the skids throughout the second period. At the end of the first period they were trailing 15-9 and by half-time 31-15.

Coming back for the second half of play the Trojans showed even less spark than in the first two quarters. In the closing minutes of the final quarter they seemed to muster some extra power, but it was far too late.

Pacing the way for the Trojans in their losing cause were Bob Gross, who collected a total of 11 points, and Glen Reed, close behind with 10 to his credit.

This Friday the Trojans will journey to Keego Harbor for a contest there.

Many a fellow knocks himself out trying to keep up with his good intentions.

Buckets Few And Far Between

Despite the efforts of a Clarkston foe, the ball is cut loose by a Clarenceville cager and is headed for the basket. For too few times, however, were the Trojans able to send the ball through the nets like this. As a result, the Clarenceville cagers were handed one of their soundest defeats of the season last Friday night by the Clarkston quintet. Jumping off to a fast start and continuing to pour it on throughout the remainder of the game, the Clarkston team showed little wear in taking the 54-34 victory.

Southfield Cagers Set Torrid Pace In Overtime To Down Falcons 56-51

Setting a torrid pace in overtime play, the Southfield Bluejays whipped past the Farmington cagers last Friday evening on their home floor for a well-earned 56-51 victory.

In the overtime period the Jays went on a scoring rampage by pumping in 9 points to the Falcons' four. A grilling battle between the two teams in the closing minutes of regular play left the score deadlocked.

After a see-saw battle in the first period the Falcons jumped ahead in the second quarter when John Fawcett dumped one in for the Falcons to give them a two-point edge. The Falcons held command in the game from this point until midway in the third period.

Bob Evans then cut loose for the Jays to push them ahead 32-20 with Eric Layton increasing it to 34. The Falcons came back in the closing seconds but were unable to span the gap and the third quarter ended with the Jays leading 38-27.

In the final period Bud Jones wasted little time in sinking a field goal to put the Falcons ahead again. Shoquist added another two-pointer to extend the lead.

A few minutes later the Jays were right back again, however, and knotted up the score at 42-43. First the Falcons would go ahead and then the Jays as time in the quarter was running out. With seconds left, Miller sank a

Falcon JV's Edged By Southfield Jays

The Farmington High J.V. lost a thrilling, hard fought game to a good Southfield reserve squad by the score of 50-49 Friday, January 21.

The Junior Falcons got off to an excellent start in the first quarter and were leading 17-12 when the buzzer sounded.

The second quarter was a different story and the reserves couldn't seem to find the basket as they scored only 5 points and trailed 26-22 at the half ended.

The J. V. came from behind by scoring 14 points and tied the game up in the end of the third quarter. This set it up for the dramatic final period.

The score was nip and tuck all the way down the line and Southfield managed to come out on top 49-48.

The squad showed good, balanced scoring with all of the starting team hitting well.

Jerry Flick again led the team with 15 points. He was closely followed by McLellan and Glidemeister with 11 each, and Warbler and Brobauer with 7 and 5 respectively.

Coach Fiehe stated that he thought the boys played a good, hard game and he was very well satisfied.

V. F. W. Week Celebrated Here, Across Nation

This week, January 23-29 inclusive, is National Veterans of Foreign Wars Week with Farmington Post 4023 and its Auxiliary joining with other posts and auxiliaries across the nation in the week-long celebration.

Looking back, both the local post and its auxiliary can be proud of the many services and projects they have sponsored. One of these many projects has been the presentation of American flags to organizations and for buildings throughout the community.

Last year alone flags were given to a number of Girl Scout and Boy Scout Troops as well as to the Ground Observers Corp and the Wheeler Street Fire Hall. A total of 12 classroom flags were also presented to local schools.

Each year Post 4023 conducts a Memorial Day parade, and service at the Clarenceville cemetery and participating in the Memorial Day parade in Farmington.

Through the services of the V. F. W. many needy families have been helped financially and materially each year. In May the V. F. W. Post and Auxiliary conducted the annual Buddy Poppy sale and through the generosity of the people of Farmington and outlying districts, the disabled veterans and their dependent families are aided.

As a special project in the spring of last year, 12 bicycles were restored to good condition and presented to the children at the V. F. W. Home in Eaton Rapids by the local V. F. W. organization.

This year the 4023 Auxiliary is celebrating its tenth year of active duty. They are sponsors for Girl Scout Troop 270, and each year sponsor an essay contest in the local high schools.

Assistance in all Civil Defense and community service projects is always offered by the local V. F. W. Post. A salute goes out to all members of the local post and its auxiliary for their fine efforts.

GOODWILL TRUCKS TO BE IN AREA MONDAY, JAN. 31

The holiday season combined with winter weather has resulted in a very small number of pick-up calls for Goodwill Industries. This means that Goodwill's handicapped employees have worked almost exclusively the past few weeks upon the stock-pile of materials collected during the recent Boy Scout drive in Detroit. Miss Lora Ault, local telephone representative, announced this week that the stock-pile now needs replenishing in order to insure full time work for all of Goodwill's employees.

Items needed at the Goodwill plant in addition to clothing are small appliances, most types of furniture, toys, hats, and miscellaneous household articles.

The familiar red and white Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks are scheduled to be in Farmington and Franklin Village on Monday, January 31. To schedule a pick-up, call Miss Lora Ault at Farmington 1461-M.
