MISSIONARIES FROM MANY LANDS TO GIVE REPORTS

Missionaries from many unusual fields, with up-to-the-minute reports of conditions in other lands, and some with films of the countries they represent, will address the seventh annual missionary conference of the Southfield Community Church, according to the pastor, the Rev. Mr. H. Raymond Hayne. The church is 1 1/2 miles west of Telegraph Road, and two blocks north of Eight Mile Road at 21122 Indian Street.

The conference will open with several services on Sunday, February 13, and continue through Sunday, February 20. Services will be held nightly at 7:30 p.m., except Monday and Saturday. Special programs for young people will be held at 6:30 p.m. both Sundays. Women will be addressed by Mrs. Arthur Tyles, wife of a martyred missionary from Brazil, on Wednesday at 1:00 o'clock.

Boys and girls and teen-agers will have a special program on Friday evening, with Pilot Grady Perrot telling of his adventures flying missionaries over the jungles of South America.

A question and answer period will be featured on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings. Mexico will be presented on Tuesday by Rev. Manis Ruesseger. Missionary Minnie Myers will present Bolivia on Wednesday. India will be presented by Rev. Hubert Mitchell on Thursday.

Bass singer John Sergey, formerly of opera, will sing and speak Sunday morning, February 13, at 11:15 a.m. Rev. Walter Olsen will speak at 7:30 p.m. On the closing Sunday, Cowboy missionary Howard Detroff will speak to the juniors at 10 a.m. Missionary Melvin Donald of Africa will speak at 11:15 a.m. The conference will close Sunday evening, February 20, at 7:30 with an address by Rev. Leslie Harwood.
