Junior Play Cast Holds First Reading Of Parts For 'Fog Island' This Week

Contrary to belief, "Fog Island" is a suspense play, not a murder. The junior cast had its first reading on Monday, February 14, after school in the cafeteria. Pat Miller plays Mrs. Williams, who is a stern, forbidding woman beyond thirty-five. She is one of the partners in the plot against the scientist. In the scene, she is dissatisfied with playing the lesser part.

Mr. Williams, a small time operator who acts as a stooge for Brock, is played by Dave Frues. He is also dissatisfied with his secondary position. One gets the impression he thinks he could handle some big deal by himself, but a further impression leaves one feeling he would bungle it if he had such an opportunity.

A suave and polished criminal who rarely loses his sinister look is Brock, played by Nick Spier. His voice almost carries but under it is a cold, ironical edge that is vicious, unrelenting, and calculating. Brock is the mastermind behind the plot. The obvious secret information from the scientist.

The scientist is young Jerry Martin, characterized by Russell Desmick. He is pleasant, forceful and calm during crises. An uncertain romance with Priscilla Ralston was interrupted by the urgency of secret scientific work on atom energy.

Ray Cargill is Sheriff Doollittle, a local blacksmith and the sheriff from town on the mainland opposite Fog Island. He gets other interesting adventures from a female bodyguard on the mainland who watches goings-on with a spyglass from her window. One gets the impression he is as much of a bodyguard as she is. He is not too quick with the old mind and maintains a confused manner throughout.

At the start of the play, Priscilla Ralston, played by Lois Ayres, is not sure of her status with Jerry, as he left abruptly without seeing her. She is baffled by his refusal to recognize her. The reason? He does not want her to know he is a prisoner of Brock for fear of involving her. She is

Senior Class Discusses Project Budget Plans

Budget plans for the prom, yearbooks and class gift were discussed at the Senior Class meeting Wednesday, February 9. In the cafeteria.

Two different budgets were presented to the seniors and they decided to use the budget first proposed. This plans calls for spending $370 on the prom, losing approximately $120; $184.50 on yearbooks; $30 in gifts to advisors; $25 miscellaneous; $129.50 for the class gift.

Mardi Gras Dance To Be Held Feb. 26

A Mardi Gras dance will be held again this year, on Saturday, February 26, from 8:30 to 11:30 in the cafeteria. Only couples will be allowed and the price will be announced later.

Jane Boyce is chairman of the decorations committee. The decorations will be quite elaborate and will carry out the theme. Publicity is headed by Nancy Lind.

Ginny Nelson is in charge of entertainment. The entertainment is to be kept a secret for the present.

The theme of Michigan State College's 1955 Centennial year is a quotation from Lincoln's Gettysburg Address: "It is for us the living... to be dedicated here to the unfinished work."

PRESCRIPTIONS ALWAYS FIRST IN IMPORTANCE

sweet but not sticky, capable but not officious, and displays calm courage in crisis. Her position as a dramatic teacher places the full responsibility of the five girls entirely on her shoulders.

Roberta Spaller is Marlene Gardner, the well-eyed rooming house girl. She is the only serious student of drama in the group of girls, and knows her own dramatic effects. Talking, especially, she would make an ideal companion for a scene.

Ann Wickcliffe, played by Miry How, does not talk much because she is overcome with her fever. Big-eyed, quiet, uncertain of her ground is Johannah Green, played by Marlene Fenton. She lacks self-confidence and self-assertiveness.

Hazel Sommers is matter of fact. She is kitchy and always hungry. Elsie Kinsman will portray this part.

Carlene Daniels plays a breezy, talkative, Americanizing girl called Margy O'Laughlin.

Mr. Clayton Graham is the faculty advisor in charge of advertising.

Ticket committee is headed by Don Towell.

Mr. Ted Bialecki is in charge of ushers.

The music during intermission will be taken care of by Mr. Raymond Sherpitts.

Alumni News

Gerald Williams, class of '54, is being sent by the Michigan National Guard to Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, for mechanical training. He left on February 12 and will be there for two or three months.

Jack Shatts, class of '53 and editor of the B & W in '53, is home on a stop-over leave from Texas to another camp.

Sharon (Andrews) Steinkopf, class of '51, is the mother of a baby girl born Monday, February 7. The baby, Linda Sue, weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces at birth.

Tim Thomas, class of '54, is in Florida on vacation with his father.

Diek Goulet, class of '54, has entered the University of Michigan for the second semester.

Pat Beckett, class of '53, is attending Wayne University this semester.

Suzanne (Labadie) McUsie, class of '50, is the mother of a baby boy named Daniel. He was born February 3 at the Scott Air Force base in Illinois where her husband is a commissioned officer.

Nearly 30 Taking Part In Forensics

Approximately 30 are participating in the 1955 forensic meetings, which are being coached by Mr. Raymond Sherpitts.

The forensics contest is divided into five divisions: humorous, dramatic, oratorical declamation, which is for Freshmen and Sophomores, original declamation and extempore, which have to be original. Memorization is required for all five areas with the exception of extempore, which is impromptu.

The following students are participating in forensics: Joyce Urbain, Clara Hanson, Carol Davis, Roberta Spaller, Mary Ann Ohman, Linda Kelly, Bob Ryan, Leah Nathan, Frank Hummer, Nick Spier.

Gary Best, Jay Mason, Shirley Bunnell, Joanne Mitchell, Judy Jalbert, Gary Hamlin, Ron Rodgers, Mary Howe, Arlene Scott, Barbara Gioletto, and Gordon Harshefeld.

Carlene Daniels, Marilyn Gregor, Bob Byrne, Art Hamlin, Bill Lonsider, Roy Doonan, Frank Sundria, Mike Walker and Dennis Coffman.

Foreign Exchange Students Will Talk At Assembly

Two foreign exchange students will be the main event of the Brotherhood Assembly to be held Wednesday, February 23, during Brotherhood Week.

Brotherhood Week is from February 20 to 25. One of the students is Denby Evans, a girl from England now studying at Bentley High. The other is Paul Wennerstrand, a boy from Sweden who is studying at Cooley in Detroit.

Both will answer student questions with Mr. Maxtalin as interrogator. Those interested in asking some questions are urged to write them on a piece of paper and put them in the question box in the cafeteria.

Mr. Tarmo Maxtalin, American Government and Economics Instructor, is in charge of the program.

Mr. Carl Hanna, who is a representative of the American Field Service, will explain briefly the plan involving exchange students.

The American Field Service is responsible for bringing exchange students over to America.

Most of the students are brought over during their senior year. The students are the same age as our seniors.

After the program is over the Student Council will hold a Coke Hour from 3 to 5.

There will also be a display in the main lobby commemorating Brotherhood Week.

The display will consist of the flags of each country in the United Nations, on a blue background paper. "Hello's" will be written out in several different languages.

Those working on the showcase display are: Mary Lee Bryan, Jon Schultz, Carlye Costello, Charles Bean, Marilyn Gregor, Joan Puckett, Beverly Pledge and Dick Goulet.

TWO CAGE TEAMS UNDEFEATED IN INTRAMURAL PLAY

The Goal-Getters are still setting the pace in the White Division of the Intramural league, with six victories and no defeats.

The Goal-Getters noded out the Persuasive Four by the score of 24 - 20, with the pace-setting Jerry Plautz again hitting double figures with 12 points.

The Fast Breakers, who are just behind the Goal-Getters in the league standings, beat the Free-Throwers by the score of 28 - 21. Tom Sundria and Paul Lachmann led the way for the winners with 8 points each.

The only game in the Red Division was a 2 - 0 forfeit victory by the Basket Hangers over the Crawcuts, who were unable to floor a full team.

The Sharpshooters are still setting the pace in the Frosh and Sophomore League by remaining undefeated in three starts.

The following are the league standings:

White League
Goal-Getters	6 0
Fast-Breakers	5 1
Near-Misses	3 2
Fearsome-Four	2 4
Free-Throwers	0 5
Red-League
Sharpshooters	3 0
Basket-hangers	3 2
Blue Angels	1 2 4
Crawcuts	0 4

HERE ARE SOME FACTS . . .

Every Farmington Area Merchant Should Know!

First, the entire Farmington City and Township area is experiencing a rapid increase in population. Second, this percentage of increase is being matched, and then some, by the growth of THE FARMINGTON ENTERPRISE.

HERE'S PROOF . . . According to the latest report of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Planning Commission (November, 1954) the population of the Farmington area as of July, 1954, was 17,600. Thus the latest unaudited circulation figures of THE ENTERPRISE show that "Farmington's Home Community Newspaper" is now being read by approximately 64.5% of the residents of the area. Even more important, 489 new subscribers have joined the growing ENTERPRISE family in the past 5 1/2 months.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO YOU? Simply this . . . THE ENTERPRISE is being welcomed into the majority of Farmington homes every week and the number is growing steadily. They are taking THE ENTERPRISE because they are interested in knowing what is going on in their home community, and they read it not once but many times during the week. These readers are potential customers of yours. They want to know what you have to offer in the way of merchandise and services. You can tell them effectively and economically through regular advertising in THE ENTERPRISE. If you want people to shop at home . . . advertise at home!
