GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH TO HOLD MID-WEEK SERVICES

Mid-Week Lenten Services will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, Grand River at Imperial Highway, each Wednesday throughout Lent. A Get-Acquainted-Party was held at Grace Church on Sunday, February 20, in order to get new members of the church acquainted with older members of the congregation. The Mary-Martha Circle was in charge of refreshments under the chairmanship of Frances Guntzaviler. The Flower Circle decorated the tables in the dining room.

The Ladies Guild of Grace Church met on Thursday, February 11, in the church basement. Mrs. Walter Knoll of Imperial Highway was received into membership.

Miss Lucille Staaback, a Braile student of the Bible Institute, entertained the ladies with piano compositions and readings. She was assisted by her mother.

Refreshments were served under the chairmanship of Mildred Baldwin. She was assisted by Emma Baldwin, Mrs. John Baumgartner, Adys Bell, Betty Berg and Helen Clifford.

Longtime Local Residents Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

MR. and MRS. OTTO MAAHS

Longtime residents of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Maahs of 2617 1/2 Farmington Road, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, February 13, with a reception given in their home.

The affair was held at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Esther White, with all children, grand-children and great-grandchildren, 29 altogether, present. Following a lovely dinner prepared for the group, a five-layer anniversary wedding cake, trimmed in gold, was cut out by the honored couple.

They were presented with many lovely gifts.

Mr. Maahs was born in Wyandotte on January 19, 1884, and his wife, the former Hannah Orlick, was born in Detroit on January 5, 1885. They were united in marriage at the Zion Lutheran Church in Detroit on February 11, 1905.

The Maahses moved to Farmington Township in 1908 and have lived here ever since. Maahs was a dairy farmer here for 35 years.

The couple have three children: Mrs. Esther White of Whitmore Lake; Mrs. Florence Miller of Novi, and Mrs. Cora Provisken of Wayne; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

They have been members of the St. Paul Lutheran Church at Charlevoix for the past 47 years.

Town Club Guest

BRUCE B. BRADSHAW

Bruce B. Bradshaw, decorating consultant, will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Farmington Town Club, to be held at the Universalist Church Thursday, March 3, at 8:00 p.m.

Presented by the J. T. Hudson Company. Speakers Bureau, Mr. Bradshaw's theme will be on "Children's Rooms and Rumpus Room Decorations." His presentation will be directed toward a better understanding of how to achieve an attractive room through the application of good taste in selecting style, floor covering, fabric or color scheme. Bradshaw works with decorating materials while he talks and will demonstrate ways in which a color scheme can be developed. Furniture arrangement will also be discussed. He concludes his program by inviting questions from his listeners.

Bradshaw has been engaged in interior decorating for the past 25 years. He is in constant touch with new trends in his field, and gives as many as one-hundred lectures a year on home decorating. At present, he is the training representative for the Home Furnishing Division of the J. L. Hudson Company and a member of the Speakers Bureau.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. T. A. McConough, assisted by Miss Margery Morris, Mrs. Fred Monroy, Mrs. Charles Oldenburg and Mrs. John Perry.

Farmington

Girl Scout News

The Farmington Neighborhood Girl Scout Association held its first meeting since the appointment of the new neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Harold Whiting, on Wednesday, February 16.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Culey on Maple Avenue. Plans were made at the meeting by leaders and committee members for the forthcoming Girl Scout birthday parties.

Other chairmen are: Hazel Quisenberry, properties; Mrs. T. L. Lamb, costumes; Harold Whiting, stanzas; George Nalston, ushers; and Lloyd Smith, programs.

Last week members of Senior Girl Scout Troop 258, along with their leaders, Mrs. Rozan and Mrs. Leuch, visited the Sarah Fisher Home to learn what they could do to help a program aids.

Girl Scout Troops 177 and 176 of Our Lady of Sorrows combined to have their troop birthday party on February 16. New members received post-graduation cards and the rest received year pins.

A birthday cake with candles and ice cream were served.

Leaders Mrs. Louis Leonard and Mrs. Hector Lathrop were in charge of the party, assisted by Mrs. Kucharek, Mrs. McGuire, Mrs. Leo, and Mrs. Paula. Committeewoman Mrs. Kucharek was in-charge.

Brooks Troop 468, under the leadership of Mrs. John Petersmark, prepared tray favors for the patients in Children's Hospital for Valentine's Day. The group then held a Valentine party with refreshments of ice cream and cake at the February 16 meeting.

Mariner Troop 527 was guest of the Novi Senior Girl Scout Troop at the Novi Community Hall and enjoyed a round basketball game. A pat on the back is extended girls of the troop for their activities despite the illness of their leader, Mrs. William Harnum, who has been greatly missed by others in the neighborhood group.

Plans were made at the last meeting of Tween-III Troop 276, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Langley, for a skating party this Saturday.

A visit to the Shrine Circus for Brownie Troop 150 was planned by their leader, Mrs. Mabel Wikom.

Leaders of Girl Scout units in the Farmington area are asked to submit any news about their troop to Mrs. Vera Catherman at Farmington 0045-J. News should be called or brought in to her not later than Saturday to assure that it will appear in the paper the following week.

Forest Hills Association Aims Board Actions

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Robinson, entertained members of the Forest Hills Association at a business meeting last Thursday evening in their new home "Robinwood" on Edgemoor Drive.

The many pertinent actions of the Township Board during the past few weeks regarding zoning, the new building code, and water and sewer situations as they affect Forest Hills Subdivision were discussed by President Herbert Nepp.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robinson at the conclusion of the meeting.

FARMINGTON PLAYERS GROUP TO PRESENT COMEDY 'HARVEY' ON MARCH 23, 25, 26

Has anyone here seen Harvey? The Farmington Players will present the well-known Pulitzer prize winning play of that name by Mary Chase in the Methodist Church auditorium on March 23, 25, and 26 at 8:30 each evening.

Even those who have seen the play before should enjoy seeing the Players' presentation of it again.

The play takes place in a western city and concerns a middle-aged married man who is everyone's friend. When he claims he sees a six foot rabbit it is much to the consternation of his sister and niece and they try to have him placed in a sanitarium. A hilarious comedy follows.

An innovation for the Farmington players will be coping with the several scene changes in "Harvey." Their ingenuity will be put to the big test in this regard. Tickets may be obtained now from any member of the group. Wesley Orr is ticket chairman.

Other chairmen are: Hazel Quisenberry, properties; Mrs. T. L. Lamb, costumes; Harold Whiting, stanzas; George Nalston, ushers; and Lloyd Smith, programs.

Mrs. Adolph Kanoffa, from Detroit, was a Tuesday and Wednesday home guest of her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Snow, and her family on Mayfield Avenue.
