GO TO CROWLEY'S TO SEE SCHOOL ART EXHIBIT.

A trip to Crowley's to see the School Art Exhibit was taken last Thursday, March 3, by the art II and III classes.

The schools that contributed to the exhibit were from the southern part of Michigan. Grades 7 through 12 were represented.

The exhibit contained about a thousand pieces of art work. There were several types of art work: oil paintings, water colors, crafts, jewelry, weaving, ceramics, and textiles.

Mr. Raymond Glenn stated, "The photography exhibit was good and there were showings of color slides."

Mr. Glenn accompanied the 22 students from Farmington High. On their return from Crowley's the group stopped at C. R. Hill craft shop. Here the students purchased craft material of silver and copper for the making of jewelry in their classes.

Sophos To Present 'Mad Hatter' Dance

The "mad" Sophomore class is presenting the Mad Hatter, a dance to be held tomorrow evening, March 11, in the gym from 8:00 to 11:00.

The dance will be highlighted by the wearing of crazy hats. The fellow and girl with the craziest hats will be selected as king and queen.

The committee chairman for the Mad Hatter are as follows: decorations, Larry Raupp; publicity, Mary Ann Ohman; tickets, Judy Higgins; refreshments, Don Strickland and Gary Warner; and clean-up, Fred Menke. J. M.

JOURNALISTS TO SPEAK TO P.T.A. GROUP TUESDAY

Five Journalism students and Mr. L. S. Peel will give talks at the next P. T. A. meeting, Tuesday, March 15, at 8 p.m. in the Farmington Senior High cafeteria.

Mr. Peel will make general comments on the journalism course and The Blue and White. Rudy Siolla will tell about the financial set-up of the paper.

A tour of the press-room will follow the meeting in the cafeteria. Carol Morton and Mary Ellen Breen will be on hand to answer questions about the procedure of printing the Blue and White.
