BETHEL BAPTIST GROUP SELECTS NEW MEETING PLACE

On the first Sunday of this month worship services of the recently organized Bethel Baptist Church were held at the Clarenceville Seventh Day Adventist Church, Oxford at Grand River, with 63 in attendance at the morning worship. Services were conducted by Rev. Frank Smith, whose theme for the day was "Huddling for God." The Bethel Baptist Church was organized on December 31, 1954, when a group of residents met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Dickerson on Howard Road for the first time to start a new church. After that time the group continued to meet weekly for prayer service while the ladies of the group met twice a month for missionary service. As the group grew, a search for a place of meeting became necessary. The present church was secured as a temporary measure. Services will continue to be held with Sunday School at 9:15 a.m. and worship at 11:00 a.m. Evening fellowship is at 7:30 p.m. with a weekly prayer service on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m.

Speak Nuptial Vows By Candlelight At Clarenceville Methodist Church

At a rosy double ring ceremony at the Clarenceville Methodist Church Miss Elyn Grace of the Clarenceville area became the bride of Russell K. Dearborn. The ceremony was conducted in the candlelit sanctuary of the church by Rev. Elsie Johns, pastor. The bride was lovely in a white tulle, full tiered skirt over draped white velvet bodice and a nylon tulle, full tiered skirt over draped taffeta. She wore a fingertip veil and white velvet gloves and carried a bouquet of white orchids and "Pier D'Amour." Attendants of the bride were Charlotte, red covers of tiered net skirts, taffeta bolero jackets and white headpieces, and carried white carnations. The color scheme carried out the colors of the Valentine season. Attending were: Joyce Timberlake, a senior at Clarenceville High School; Dorothy Robertson, a classmate of the bride; attending Taylor University, and Diane Giacomozzi, another classmate of the bride. Acting as best man was Edward Boswick, with Kenneth Hesenberg and Wade Humphrey serving as ushers. During the ceremony, Mrs. Elbert Harbin, Jr., sang, "Untill," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." Organist was Mrs. Paul Aronstam.

To Present Third Health Film

The Religious Education Committee of the Farmington Universalist Church will present the third in a series of films on mental health and family life at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, March 20, in the church auditorium at Warner and Thomas Streets, Farmington. The film, entitled "Fears of Children," deals with a family anxious to raise their five year old son correctly, who learns that it is normal for children to become angry with their parents, and that some rebellion should be tolerated. This series is being presented as a community service, and all parents and others who work with children will find the films both interesting and helpful. All interested persons are cordially invited to attend and to participate in the group discussion which will follow the film presentation.

Prepare For Heavy Drain On County Blood Bank

The blood advisory committee of Oakland County, Chapter of American Red Cross is preparing to meet a heavy drain on the blood bank during the summer. Mrs. Dalton F. Sifton, the committee's registration chairman, points out that the months of July and August must be booked for mobile visits that will give the Oakland County from 500 to 600 pints per month. She explains that the high summer-accident rate coupled with the lack of interest in giving blood in summer necessitates diligent recruitment.
