Your Friends and Neighbors

Along the Creek in Woodcreek

Paul King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Plewes, was most pleasantly surprised on his 15th birthday by thirty of his high school friends. Judy Weightman assisted Paul's mother with the plans and entertainment for the evening.

Rudy Golla, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Golla of Overdale Court, will graduate from Farmington High School this June. He is business manager of the school paper, "The Blue and White," and with other students talked on a panel at the last P.T.A. meeting. Rudy has been selected by the faculty to the National Honor Society.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bantfield spent the past week end in Cleveland. Mal went on business and Ellen for a holiday.

Neighbors Sue Schlotterbeck, Betty Brown, Verne Fisher and youngster Shelby Bantfield had birthdays in March.

Elise Johnson was honored on March 17 with a birthday dinner. St. Patrick's decorations were in order for this young lady of eight years. Mother Kay planned dinner, games and bingo for friends Rickie Fellner, Susan Bieker, Susan Taubman, Judy Goller, Sarah Horton and sister Karen.

Mr. Norman Kreider was hostess to the Lenten Study group of Franklin Community Church on March 22. Coffee was served at 10 a.m. Mrs. Emil Bates was the leader on the study of India. Mrs. Merrill Day, a guest, showed the ladies her many pieces of beautiful hand-craft jewelry and hand-woven scarves, which her husband had brought from India.

On March 17, the home of Doctor and Mrs. Harold Lam on Westbrook Court was a busy place when dinner was served to 63 guests, including the national head of the heart association. The Henry Most Hospital sponsored a three-day, outstanding meeting. "The International Symposium on Cardiovascular Surgery," of which Dr. Lam was an active participant. 450 doctors from all over the world attended.

Two hours seemed like two minutes when eight excited women met at Grace Fisher's to pin cancer pads in Thursday. Many thanks to the busy workers. The regular meeting of the Women's Association will be held at the home of Mrs. P. G. Schlotterbeck on Beech Hill, April 5, at noon. Zella Nissal and Doris Wells will assist the hostess. Members are asked to bring new neighbors, come prepared to sew cancer pads, and to hear the report of the nominating committee.

Women scheduled for duty at the Farmington Ground Observer Post on April 1 are: Ruth Schlotterbeck and Ellen Bantfield, 5 to 12 a.m.; Zella Nissal and Edith Kennedy, 12 to 3 p.m.; and Andie Dryer and Ruth Golla, 3 to 6 p.m.

New officers of the Farmington P. T. A. include Marian Lam, secretary; and Alice Billiu, treasurer.

The Men's Association will meet March 31 at 8 p.m. at the home of Dr. Zar Reeder, 28494 Wellington Road.

The school bus, because of road conditions, has been forced off Wellington Road. Jim Schlotterbeck and his sturdy jeep have rescued many of our neighbors from the mud holes.

Looking Ahead

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON

(Continued from Page 2A) ongoing chapter of the 1947 textbook. "When we have definite international laws and an army to enforce them we should have international peace. For instance, when atomic bombs are made only by a world government and used only by a world army, who could resist? The United Nations formed by the Allies is a step in that direction (by added). In championing the surrender of "some" of our national sovereignty, the book quotes writer E. Stanley Jones. "Center yourself on yourself and make yourself sovereign, and that self will go to pieces. That is true of the individual, and that is true of the group or nation." In the 1955 edition these passages do not appear.

Local Father - Son Teams Win Bowling Honors

Among those taking honors in the sixth annual Detroit News Father and Son bowling championship held at State Fair Recreation recently were two Farmington father-son teams.

Locals placing in the Class B division were John and Frank Clappison and Curtis and Mike Hill. Trophies were awarded to both teams.

A total of 416 combinations competed in the annual event.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kampka and their three children have been living in the third subdivision on Merrybrook Drive for about a week. Paul, who is twenty, attends the University of Detroit, and their two daughters, Carol, 18, and Janice, 16, both go to high school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Diamond and daughter Patricia of LaMotte Drive returned recently from a five-week vacation in Florida. A friend, Mrs. McLellan, accompanied them on the trip.

They stayed at Pine Shores, a resort on the outskirts of Sarasota, Florida.

The weather was perfect, so they had the opportunity to go swimming, dancing, and attend clam bakes. All making up the agenda for a wonderful time.

Patricia attended a private school while there, renewing old acquaintances and making new friends among her classmates.

On Saturday, Jimmy Evans celebrated his eighth birthday with eleven friends present at a birthday party. Jimmy received many nice gifts. Games were played, and refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gramer entertained their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Evert, at a Pinochle game Saturday evening.

Mrs. Arthur D. Keener from Akron, Ohio, was a week end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin on Springland Drive.
