Just back from a wonderful month in Phoenix, Arizona, are the Mitchell Fishmans of Shrevebury Road. Mrs. Alfred Remeny's parents were there also and assisted the Fishmans in finding a place to stay. The only unpleasant part of the trip was coming back to Michigan's weather, the Fishmans stated.

Art Corey of Middlebelt Road is back from about six weeks in Portugal and one could listen for hours to his interesting experiences while there. Although the trip was for business purposes and most of his time was spent in Lisbon, he managed to get in a few side trips, taking in southern Portugal, Madrid, and Paris. He picked up many fine mementos for Mrs. Corey, including filigree jewelry, silver spoons, and such. His trip home was rouged through London and Shannon, Ireland, and was very enjoyable, he said.
