Speak Wedding Vows By Candlelight
At Farmington Methodist Church

At a colorful candlelight wedding ceremony Saturday evening, April 2, at the Farmington Methodist Church, Shirley Evans of 23459 Alyce Kay became the bride of Douglas Vaccaro of Redford.

The bride was lovely in a gown with Chantilly lace bodice and billowy skirt of net over satin. Her veil of illusion with nylon ruffled edges was of fingertip length. She carried a corsage of white carnations surrounded with white roses. Acting as maid of honor was Beverly Riegall, a cousin of the bride. She wore a yellow dotted Swiss over satin ballerina length gown, a yellow daisy crown, and carried yellow carnations.

Alice Monseau and Mary Lou Hodgerson were bridesmaids. They wore pale orchid and Nile green gowns, respectively, identical to that of the maid of honor.

Vaccaro's brother, Raymond, acted as best man. Ushers were Earl Updike and Robert Evans.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Reverend Russell Suraw. Organ selections were played during the service with Clarence Danke rendering vocal selections, "This Is My Beloved," and "The Lord's Prayer."

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a blue silk princess dress with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Vaccaro chose a broad-shouldered suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a 1954 graduate of Farmington High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans. The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Vaccaro, is a graduate of Redford High School.
