C'ville Opti-Mrs. Elect Officers

Officers for the Clarenceville Opti-Mrs. Club were elected recently at a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. L. Cook of Colwell Street.

Mrs. Vernon Hasley was chosen as president with other officers elected as follows: Mrs. C. L. Cook, vice-president; Mrs. Glen Kennedy, treasurer; Mrs. Russell Waack, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Richard Carlson, recording secretary; and Mrs. Kenneth Bennett, sergeant-at-arms.

Retiring officers are: Mrs. E. Dean Egan, president; Mrs. Ward Clements, vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Stauffer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. O. Berry, recording secretary; and Mrs. Charles Celletti, sergeant-at-arms.

The final meeting for this year of the group will be held at a social meeting for member and their guests with a banquet at Monks Hotel in Brighton on Thursday evening, June 2. The banquet will be followed by the installation of new officers.

Meetings of the Opti-Mrs. Club will not be held during the summer months but will resume again in September.

Patricia Dailey, Anthony Welichko Exchange Wedding Vows In April

At a quiet ceremony the latter part of April at the home of Judge Nye, wedding vows were spoken by Patricia Dailey of 21350 Hamilton and Anthony Welichko of 21770 Pointina in Detroit.

The bride wore a nylon ballerina length gown with flowers embossed on the skirt portion. A white Milan straw hat with rhinestone trim held her veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Attending the couple were the bride's brother, Milton Dailey, and her sister-in-law, Patricia Phillips Dailey, who came from Camp Campbell, Kentucky, for the ceremony.

The single ring ceremony was performed in a room decorated with white gladioli. The organ selection "O Promise Me" was played during the service.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Dailey residence. The home was decorated in white and pale pink with blue streamers holding white wedding bells. A lunch of roast beef and baked ham, along with salad, relish and wedding cake and coffee was served. The lunch was served by Mrs. Irene O'Brien and Mrs. John White. Approximately 60 guests from Detroit, Birmingham, Walled Lake, Redford, Livonia and Farmington were present. Present from Canada, along with Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. White, was Mrs. Joseph Lester, Sr. from Essex.

For the wedding the bride's mother, Mrs. Milton Dailey, chose a black and white tissue paper, fall dress with matching accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. Stephen Welichko, wore a navy blue crepe dress with accessories to match, and a carnation corsage.

The former Miss Dailey is a 1952 graduate of Clarenceville High School and was employed at the Wurtzbacker's Novelty Store at Eight Mile and Grand River. The groom is now employed with the Detroit Diesel Engineering Company. He previously served four years in the Navy in Korea.

Savoy cabbage is a fine home garden vegetable. It is not often found in markets though its crinkled leaves have a special flavor.

Plans Completed For Flower Show Here May 21

Plans are now completed for the annual Farmington Garden Club flower show, to be presented Saturday, May 21, at the new high school on Shawwassee.

The annual show is a community project presented for the public to enjoy free of charge. The show will open at 2:00 p.m. and continue until 3:00 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

"Merry Month of May," theme of this year's show, will give exhibitors an opportunity to express themselves in a variety of classes. Classes consist of "Arrangements" with one color predominating, "May Breakfast Table for Two," "May Bouquet," "Clanets," "dramatic black and whites," "Mother's Day Arrangements, Memorial Day Arrangements, Memorial Day Displays," and "Flowers."

There will also be an unclassified class. Mrs. Henry Otis is chairman of the arrangement classes and Mrs. Paul Schreiner is chairman of the horticultural classes.

Mrs. Keith Willoughby, general chairman of the show, announces that geranium plants will be on sale.

Organize P.T.A. At Westbrook School

A local Parent Teachers Association (P. T. A.) has been organized at the Westbrook School in the Clarenceville School District with a charter membership of 15 persons.

A special meeting held recently at the school adopted a set of by-laws and elected officers to serve for the 1955-56 year. Elected were: Gerald Holder, president; Marion Spencer, mother delegate; Ralph Beaman, father delegate; Ruth Shand, teacher vice-president; Eve Kabisak, secretary and James Willoughby, treasurer.

The newly elected officers have assumed their official responsibilities and are developing plans for activities during the summer and the next school year.

Vegetable salads can be garnished with watercress, mint, parsley, pimiento, grated raw carrot or sliced olives.

Joanne Auger Selected To Attend Wolverine Girls' State At U. Of M.

Joanne Auger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Auger of 22950 Canfield, was chosen recently as Farmington's representative to attend Wolverine Girls' State at the University of Michigan this summer.

Mrs. Auger will make residence with girls from all parts of the state at Stockwell Hall on the U. of M. campus from June 14 through 22 to learn the fundamentals of citizenship and state government, and then put them into actual practice.

Activities during the week will include a campaign dinner, good-will lunch, pajama party, a talent and skit show and an Aloha party along with scheduled instruction in government. Leisure time has also been set aside for swimming, tennis and other sports as well as numerous tours of the campus.

A Junior at Farmington High School this year, Miss Auger has been a cheerleader for the past year.

JOANNE AUGER

In her sophomore and junior year, she was selected as a representative to the queen's court for the Homecoming week end.

Joanne has been active on many school committees and has taken an active part in the Girls' Athletic Association (G.A.A.). Lois Lyles was selected as an alternate to Miss Auger to attend Girls' State.

Lady Of Sorrows Scouts Make Mothers' Gifts

Thoughtfulness, devotion to home, and artistic ability were apparent in the Mother's Day gifts fashioned by the Girl Scouts and Brownie Troops of Our Lady of Sorrows Parish.

"Most unusual" perhaps, were the "Bird in a Gilded Cage," designed and fashioned by the Brownies of Troop 170, under the guidance of their leader, Mrs. Fred Bader, and co-leader, Mrs. James Duffy.

Most useful award went to the Brownies of Troop 228, directed by Mrs. Guy Boatman and Mrs. Cyril Johnson, for their flower vases, adorned by jars wrapped with cord and shellacked in different colors.

Most decorative were the earrings of flower and fruit designs modeled by the Brownies of Troop 465, whose leaders are Mrs. John Petersmark and Mrs. Joseph Jurek.

High fashion was the keynote of the Girl Scout Mother's Day gifts. Girl Scout Troop 179, under the leadership of Mrs. John Quinlan, made rhinestone pins in various designs and colors.

Printed neckscarves, hand decorated with sequins, were displayed by the nippers fingers of Troop 175, guided by Mrs. Hector LeBlanc and Mrs. Daniel Lepo. Pottery plates were hand painted and made into wall plaques by Troop 176, directed by Mrs. Louis Leonard and Mrs. Wilfred Riddell.

Universalist Church Head To Speak Here

Doctor Brainard Gibbons, general superintendent of the Universalist Church of America, will be at the Farmington Universalist Church for a special pot luck dinner Wednesday, May 25, at 6:30 p.m.

Doctor Gibbons will speak on Universalism as a National Church and will stress the importance of the National Convention of the Universalist and Unitarian Churches. The convention will be held August 24 through 29.

Jointly with the Farmington Church for the dinner will be the Northwest Universalist and Unitarian Church.

Farmington W. C. T. U. To Meet May 26

The Farmington W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting on Thursday, May 26, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William McCullough of 30710 Fink.

Guest speakers will be Mrs. John J. Little of Bloomfield Hills, honorary president of the 18th District, and Mrs. Sadie Patton of Pontiac, citizenship director of the 18th District of the W. C. T. U.

Newcomers Club Meet Attracts 55

The Farmington Newcomers Club met last Wednesday evening, May 11, at the home of Mrs. Terrell Houston at 22955 Manning.

A total of 55 newcomers attended to hear a talk on flower arrangements with garden flowers by Mrs. Clarence Bickling. Harold Whiting gave a talk on the Friends of the Library organization.

At the close of the evening refreshments of coffee and cookies were served.

The next meeting of the Newcomers Club will be held on the second Wednesday in June. Details on the place and nature of the program for the meeting will be disclosed later.
