Biology Students Take Tour Of U. Of M. Museum

The morning Biology I students left Thursday for a tour of the University of Michigan Museum in Ann Arbor.

The afternoon classes will go tomorrow. Mr. Don Howell, general science and biology I teacher, will accompany both groups.

One of the highlights of the trip is expected to be the selection of a dinosaur.

The students will also see various kinds of minerals and fossils, bones, along with various stuffed animals and preserved insects.

Student - Faculty Committee Formed To Determine Policies For Dances

Because of various problems regarding dances over the past few years, a student-faculty committee to establish some written policies has been created.

The student-faculty committee will begin work at once.

The faculty members on the committee are: Miss Mary Bassett, chairman; Mr. Clayton Graham, Mr. Ray Glenn, Mr. Lee Peel, Miss Virginia Carver, Mr. Jerry Spink, and Mr. Ted Bielicki.

There will be one student from each grade on this committee. They will be chosen by their class presidents.

At this writing the following students on the committee are not known.

The state fire marshal will attend an early meeting to outline restrictions on the use of decorations at dances in the near future.

The committee will also discuss and formulate some policies regarding the operation of the I. O. O. F. card system.

At the same faculty meeting at which the above committee was named, another committee to decide policies about pep meetings in the fall was also named.

The committee consists of Miss Mary Wilcox, chairman; Miss Virginia Carver, Mr. Harold Humble, Mr. Lee Peel heads a committee which is to make recommendations.

NON-COLLEGIATE FUTURES PLANNED BY SOME SENIORS

The graduating seniors who are not intending to go to college are making their plans. Some of these are as follows:

• Jim Garner - to work as a carpenter.

• Paul Thomas - to be an assistant Pro at the new Farmington Country Club.

• Georgena Vallancourt - get married.

• Jerry Ray - probably join one of the armed services.

• Larry Van Amburg - construction work.

• George Harbour - repair industrial farm machinery.

• Tony Woods - automotive mechanic.

• Beverly Peddle - to do secretarial work and save money to go to art school.

• Bill Merrow - to make a career of the Marines.

• Noel Barbour - to make a career of the Navy.

• Henry Evert - to work on his family's farm.

• Frank Joseph - to be a carpenter's apprentice.

• Betty Jean Forgette - office work.

Students Visit U.S. Rubber Plant

The two Chemistry classes visited the United States Rubber Company on May 19, accompanied by Mr. Joseph Muzel, high school advanced science instructor.

The group left the Senior High at 9:30 by bus. Upon arrival, the guides explained the life history of the U. S. Rubber Company.

The students then saw the different devices and processes that are used in the making of the various types of tires.

During the guided tour, the group saw the colored tires which will match cars. The colors of the tires are green, blue and brown.

The students returned to the high school at 12:30.
