Enjoy S. E. Michigan Vacation Guide Now Available

The Southeastern Michigan Tourist and Publicity Association announces its new 1955 Vacation Guide is now available. The book describes by pictures and text the recreation and vacation attractions of facilities in the eight southeastern counties of the state...

The Vacation Guide is primarily used, according to L. H. Thomson, secretary-manager of the Southeastern Michigan Tourist and Publicity Association, to answer the many thousands requests received annually from prospective visitors from all over the nation and also from many foreign lands.

WEST POINT PARK By MISS L. A. AULT

Last Thursday a large group of ladies representing the Livonia Methodist W. S. C. S. held a picnic at the home of Mrs. Edna Stoughton at Peabody Lake near Milford. This was the last W. S. C. S. get-together until next September.

Neighborhood Sunshine Sisters held their June 8 meeting at the home of Mrs. George Welsh on Mayfield Avenue. A pot luck luncheon was served at 12:30 p.m. The affair was a celebration honoring Mrs. Welch's 84th birthday.

The next Sunshine meeting will be held in the Neighborhood Garden Club Wednesday, June 22, at 2 p.m. "Anniversaries" will be the topic. A cake for the occasion will be provided by Mrs. Albert Owen.

Mrs. Irene Tallman of Mayfield Avenue was in attendance Tuesday evening, June 7, at a celebration honoring the birthday of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Laughtman, held at the Laughtman home on Lathers Avenue, Livonia.

Mrs. and Mrs. Austin Ault of Brentwood Avenue were at South Lyon Saturday evening, June 11, attending a first birthday celebration honoring their granddaughter, Phyllis Lynne Reed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Peter Stump of Grand Rapids were over-night guests Tuesday of the former's Sister, Mrs. John Varhol and her family of ShadySide Avenue.

Mrs. George Throne of Brentwood Avenue attended a meeting of the Farm Bureau in Ypsilanti last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. E. Linberg, with their daughter and granddaughter from Brighton, were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. George Welsh, Mayfield Avenue.

Mrs. Howard Palmer and her two children of ShadySide Avenue are spending a week with relatives at Petoskey, Michigan.

The Harold Slevins of Akron, Ohio, were last week end guests of the Edwin Johnsons of Clarita Avenue.

Miss Grace McCain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward McCain of Seven Mile Road, Livonia, has been elected to be a member of the double mixed quartet, part of the newly-organized Gospel Team of the First Baptist Church in Farmington. The group, sponsored by the Senior Young People, assists in holding the Sunday evening open air services conducted by the church through the summer and is now planning a series of weekly youth meetings for churches of the area.

Wednesday, June 8, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Teschka, formerly of ShadySide Avenue but now of Detroit. The Teschkas also have four sons. Mrs. Teschka is a sister of Mrs. Harold McVear of ShadySide Avenue.

Critical illness of her father, Mr. McMillin, called Mrs. V. C. Reddy of ShadySide Avenue to Joliet, Illinois, Thursday. Mrs. Reddy was accompanied by her brother, Henry McMillin, of Detroit.

This week neighbors and friends were extending sympathy to William Wiltsie of Mayfield Avenue, whose father, Arthur Wiltsie, died in Detroit Thursday. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon.

The June Goodwill Industries pickup in this area made Monday, June 6, was the most successful yet. However, there is still a great need for household discards and materials with which to provide training and employment for handicapped persons. The next collection will be made on Tuesday, July 5. Arrangements can be made by calling Farmington 1461-M. A truck will stop at your door and take away contributions.

Judy and Billy Smith, children of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith of Arnold Street; Sharon Woodard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woodard of Gill Road; Lytle Maloney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Maloney of Gill Road; and Dennis and David Allen, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Allen of Kirby Street, appeared at a piano recital on Thursday, June 9, at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Gordon Northrup, on Farmington Road. Sharon Woodard also furnished special music for the June for Young People at the Farmington Baptist Church June 5, playing several well-known hymns and choruses. She was assisted by her mother.

If pressed absolutely dry, wool is likely to look shiny. Michigan State College clothing specialists suggest you leave a little moisture in the wool garment and put it on a hanger to dry.
