Church School Plans Completed

"Sailing With Christ" will be the theme in all the departments of the Daily Vacation Bible School at the Southfield Community Church, 21125 Indian according to Pastor H. Raymond Payne. The school will meet from 9:00 a.m. until noon Monday through Friday from June 20 to 30.

The program will include action stories in flannelgraph, Bible stories, handcraft, moving pictures, Scripture memory work, songs, games, and surprise features.

The school, for boys and girls 5 to 14, will be divided into four departments according to age.

The sailing theme will be carried out in songs, stories, decorations and other items. Gifting hats and pins will be given as awards for regular attendance, memory work, and bringing new children. A parade on Saturday, June 18, will be in sailor costumes.

The church buses will furnish free transportation for those at a distance. Those desiring transportation are asked to call Planners, 1-9782.

A picnic will be held on Saturday, June 25, and a demonstration night for parents will be held at the close of the school. Camping at Nichawana will follow.

MRS. MARTIN RONALD LEMIEUX

Well Known Local Couple Exchange Wedding Vows On Saturday, June 11

Wedding vows were exchanged June 11 between Marjorie Ann Burser of 23115 Farmington Road and Martin Ronald LeMieux of 21029 Grand River at a Nuptial High Mass at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with white snapdragons and gladioli, with Father Thomas P. Brehan officiating. Organ and vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Betty Schaffer.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Burser, the bride has been employed at the Carl Hill automobile agency in Farmington since her graduation from Our Lady of Mercy in 1949. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Romeo LeMieux, is employed at the General Motors Proving Grounds.

The bride's wedding gown of white nylon tulle over satin featured large inserts in the skirt, forming a long train in the back. An illusion neckline was outlined in sequins and set off with a Peter Pan collar. Long sleeves were of lace, as was the bodice. A large pillow cap trimmed with pearls and sequins held a fingertip veil in place. Her flowers were stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

The bride's twin sister, Marie, was maid of honor. Her waltz length gown of two-toned blue nylon chiffon was sleeveless, with a V-neckline and tucked bodice. Serving as bridesmaids were Elizabeth Burzer, Modelle LeMieux and Rosemond LeMieux. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor in green, orchid and pink, respectively. Each wore a nylon straw headband and carried carnations. Patricia Burser, dressed in aqua, was flower girl. Best man to the groom was his brother Raymond. Groomsman were Ralph LeMieux, Roger Kaiser and Arthur Hofmeier. Roger LeMieux and Romeo LeMieux, Jr. served as ushers.

A reception was held at the Glen Oaks Country Club, where a buffet lunch was served. Out of town guests were present from California and Ohio.

The couple are now honeymooning in Montreal and Quebec. A pink linen suit with white accessories was chosen by the bride for her going-away dress. The newlyweds will be home in Farmington to friends after June 25.

First Baptist Bible School To Begin June 20

Daily Vacation Bible School for children of Farmington will be held as usual immediately upon the close of school at the First Baptist Church, Farmington Road and Shiloh, according to Dr. Gordon Northrop, pastor. The Rev. Gaylord F. Smith of Marshall, Michigan, representing the Youth Gospel Crusade of Wheaton, Illinois, will lead the school from June 20 - 25th inclusive, during the hours from 9:00 to 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. A. C. McDonald, with her staff will again have charge of preschool and kindergarten age children, meeting this year in the newly acquired church house to the west of the church. Mrs. Donald Peddie is general coordinator of the school and may be reached at Farmington 2795 for further information.

Mr. Smith, known as "Uncle Gay" to hundreds of boys and girls, draws crowds of young people by his use of gospel music, picture adventures, oil paintings, and melodies to present the gospel. He is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and having served 16 years as pastor and youth worker, Mr. Smith is well qualified to conduct the Daily Vacation Bible School program.

Mr. Earl Harrison, Jr., is chairman of the bus committee and is providing his and car service for all children needing transportation. He may be reached at Farmington 2416. Mr. Stuart Allen, Farmington 0921, may also be contacted for transportation.
