

Holiday Safety Patrol To Work Labor Day

The Holiday Highway Safety Patrol, sponsored by the Oakland County Chapter of American Red Cross, proved its importance over the past holiday, according to general chairman Mrs. Lester Hummel.

The volunteers were called out on 14 accidents over the three-day period beginning July 27. There were 31 cars on duty and a total of 687 hours put in by 97 volunteers.

Ralph Forman, chairman of the operation will be repeated over the Labor Day week end.

What makes the world go wrong is the need of paying the grocer - a thought worth saying, though not profound.

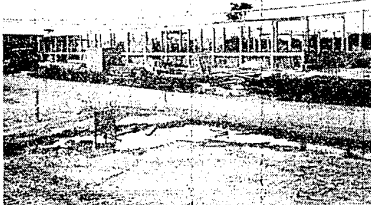

George Rashes Join Family In Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. George Rashes, 32109 Orchard Street, left Saturday for Charleston, West Virginia. Cross, proved its importance over the past holiday, according to general chairman Mrs. Lester Hummel.

They will join Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coe and children of 22759 Maple Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin White and son of Connahee Road, Pontiac, along with other relatives from Pennsylvania, Ohio and New Jersey.

They will spend several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. White, and Mrs. Caroly and Dale Johnson will spend the summer with their mother, Alma Rugh.

That story only is innumerably, which is fixed in one's own mental make-up.

CONSTRUCTION on the new high school for Our Lady of Sorrows Parish is proceeding rapidly. This picture, taken Saturday, shows the pre-fabricated beams and columns secured in place. When completed, the school will provide floor area for approximately 20 classrooms and accommodations for over 400 students. The modern structure, with its level design, fronts on Powers Road north of the parish church.

election take the next November.

During his career, Adams has served in all three branches of state government, legislative, administrative, and judicial.

First, he served three terms as a member of the House from the second Oakland County district, where he was Williams' first legal adviser, and was later appointed to the Michigan Supreme Court.

Defeated in his try for reelection in 1952, Adams returned to private law practice in Pontiac. He was appointed in the spring to the Michigan Corrections Commission.

He will serve on the commission until he takes the bench as circuit judge next January 1.

"Adams has always done a good job wherever he served," said one executive office aide. "He will make a lot of friends for himself and do the public a great service."

Barber Brothers' Open New Office

LEGISLATORS ARE organizing a 15-member study committee to work out the future of higher education in Michigan.

There will be five members from each chamber and another five, composed of businessmen, industrial executives and possibly an educator.

Already a difference of opinion has developed.

Senator Don Vander Werp (R-Fremont) is anxious to add junior and community colleges while Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Nashua) wants more money for building up four-year colleges.

The committee will hold hearings in the capital and around the state during the summer and come up with recommendations for the 1956 legislative session.

"We've got to find the answers," Vander Werp said. "This is a $150 million problem."

By skillful conduct and artificial means a person may make a sort of name for himself, but the inner jewel he wanting, all is vanity, and will not last.
