Dear Sirs:

Your editorial last week mentioned the safety of a Fourth of July without fireworks. Actually, I cannot see any common sense in having a fireworks ban when something many times worse is allowed to flow freely — namely liquor.

I regret that we cannot have fireworks. I remember the joy we used to get from using them and know of only an infinitesimal number of people who were ever hurt. That type would get hurt anyway.

New Dental Office Opens In City

Donald C. Wingard, a new dentist in the Farmington area, has opened his office in the front portion of the newly constructed building on the south side of Grand River Avenue between Lawrence Mayer Florist and the Farmington Cleaners.

Office hours are maintained daily by Dr. Wingard at the office at 33709 Grand River.

A native of Wyandotte, Dr. Wingard received his dentistry degree from the University of Michigan. He attended grade school and high school in the Wyandotte School System.

Wingard is married. His wife will be teaching elementary youngsters in the Farmington school system starting this fall.

ENGLISH GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wrigley from St. Ann's on the Sea in Lancashire, England, were guests of honor at a neighborhood picnic in Woodbine Subdivision last week end. They are spending the summer at the home of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Wrigley of Irtahill.

Hosts for the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis. The picnic was attended by Mr. and Mrs. King Balome, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Valliere, Mr. and Mrs. David Wrigley, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chellman.

The couple will sail for England in August after completing a two-month vacation here.

Mr. John Dewar of LaMar Street received deep asches in his left arm in an automobile accident last Sunday. He will be unable to return to work for an indefinite period of time.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Legg last Sunday were Mrs. Mary Helen Yarborough and son, and Mrs. Nora Johnson of Warren, Michigan.

Bill Orr was recently honored on his birthday by a group of young friends who attended his party.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hade and sons of Capac, Michigan, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Smith at their home on Tack Road.

Mr. and Mrs. John Glick of Cora Street entertained a large group of relatives and friends on July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hammond of Cora Street and their family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Luckwood of St. Clair Shores last Sunday. A birthday celebration honoring their niece made the dinner a special occasion.

ATTEND CAMP
Among the youngsters spending the week at Jackson College Summer Camp are John Mullins of Mr. and Mrs. George Mullins of Westmoreland Drive; Robert Lord, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lord of Springbrook Drive; Wesley Orr, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Orr of Springbrook Drive; and Kurt Noe, a summer guest at the Orr home from Milan, Wisconsin.

Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Aland, Jr. on their anniversary July 1.

Guest of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kondrick last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carlton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kahl.

Mr. and Mrs. Mary E. McGee, wife of the late John W. McGee, died July 11. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. George S. Roberts; and a son, James Hugh McGee. Burial was in Adrian, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilmore of 23426 Springbrook Drive entertained forty members of their family at an outdoor picnic on July 1.

William C. Hergert
Mr. William C. Hergert, 31905 Grand River, died in University Hospital, Ann Arbor, July 11 following several months illness.

He was born in Detroit August 27, 1904, the son of Carl A. and Ida L. (Kilken) Hergert, and had resided in Farmington for seven years.

Mr. Hergert was employed by the Detroit Edison Company for 25 years. He was a philatelist and had a very fine collection of stamps.

He leaves his sister and brother-in-law, Hildegarde and Frank Tesmer of Farmington; one niece, Catherine Ann Tesmer of Farmington; two aunts, Hulda Kilken of Detroit and Nabel Kilken of Northville; and an uncle, Rudolph Kilken of Detroit.

Funeral services will be held from the Spencer J. Heene Funeral Home at 1:00 p.m. Thursday with Rev. Carl H. Schultz of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church officiating.

Interment will be in Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Lewis Libstaff Phone 1502-M

Mrs. Wesley Wilson of 23693 Canfield has returned from a one-week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Russell of Otisville, Michigan. Mr. Russell has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Luck and their children, David, Ruth, Roger and Jennie, visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Castiglione of Middlebelt on Thursday. They were on their way home from a week's visit with relatives of Mr. Luck in Missouri. Mrs. Luck is the daughter of Mrs. Castiglione.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams of Middlebelt, a member of the National Guard and was recently promoted to corporal. Gerald and a friend motored to Carsonville Sunday to join his parents, who were visiting the Cleve Dellers for the week end.

The holiday week end was celebrated by the Edward Janis family with a pot-luck picnic in their valley. Friends and relatives in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Cholak and son Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. John Jaskolski, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jaskolski and son Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Jaskolski, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Morans, and Mike Jaskolski and his friend, Melvin Dowed of California. The newlyweds Sylvia and Eddie Janis were back from their honeymoon in Florida to join the group.

Mrs. Kate Fairbairn of 21621 Wheeler was hostess Thursday, July 7, to the Woman's Fellowship Class of the Farmington Baptist Sunday School. A pot luck dinner was served on the lawn. A beautifully decorated birthday cake was the highlight of the dinner, and a birthday gift was presented Mrs. Fairbairn by the class in appreciation of her services as a teacher. There were 12 class members and three visitors present for the afternoon meeting. A devotional reading was given by Mrs. Lou Dedson and the feisty birthday books were distributed. The showers held off until the meeting was over.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of 23453 Canfield attended the funeral of Mrs. Miller's mother on Thursday, July 5. Her mother, Mrs. Ruth Dolan Giesey, died in Detroit after a month of illness. Services were held at Ripley Funeral Home and interment was in Rosmont Cemetery. Surviving are her husband, four children and seven grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coates and daughters Sharon, Laura and Doreen, of Middlebelt, spent the week end of the Fourth in their cabin cruiser on Lake St. Clair. Mr. and Mrs. George Lord and daughters Barbara, Beverly and baby Elizabeth were guests on the trip. Their son, Robert, was away at camp at the time. The Coates' spent this week end also on their boat, finding it a good retreat from the extreme heat.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Emmett Howe of 23700 Sun Blvd spent the holiday week end visiting Mrs. Howe's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Payne, at their cottage at Elk Lake. Mr. Howe is on the sick list this week. Their young grandson, Jay Reazan, is staying with them.

IT'S A GIRL!
