SIXTY-SEVENTH YEAR — NUMBER 41

FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JULY 14, 1955

SEVEN CENTS A COPY

The American Red Cross estimates it will spend $1,000,000 on emergency aid and long-term rehabilitation assistance to the hundreds of families affected by the tornadoes which struck Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas in late May.

AREA SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST YOUTHS ATTENDING CAMP

The month of July is a very active one for youngsters of the Seventh-Day Adventist faith. Eight members of the Clarenceville branch have already gone or will be going to Camp AuSable at Grayling, Michigan. These members are Paul Jones, Leona Lattman, Beverly Schneider, Paul Baldwin, Diane Chisler, Bill Chisler, Richard Breakie and Richard Lockridge.

Several camping periods are in store for boys and girls during the summer. Activities will include craft studies, nature hikes, first aid instruction and a variety of supervised recreation. Spiritual guidance will be given at morning and evening services. Objective of the Adventist camps is to instill in the minds of the young campers a desire to be better Christians and citizens as well as provide them with healthful recreation.

Director of the AuSable Camp is Fred Beaver. The Seventh-Day Adventist Church currently operates some 40 camps in North America.

An ice cream social will be held Sunday, July 17, between 1 and 5 p.m. at the old O. L. S. School on Grand River Avenue across from the LaSalle Winery.

The social will be sponsored by the Altar Society of Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Along with the ice cream there will be pony rides and balloons for the kiddies.

MRS. DANIEL FRENCH

Marcia Lachmann Speaks Vows With Daniel French In Kalamazoo

Kanley Memorial Chapel was the scene of the marriage of Marcia J. Lachmann and Daniel P. French on Saturday afternoon, June 25.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lachmann of 21515 Randall and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. French of Kalamazoo.

The Rev. Louis W. Grother, pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church in Kalamazoo, officiated at the ceremony. The chapel was decorated with bouquets of white snapdragons, white gladioli, palms and lighted tapers. George Turkley played nuptial selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chapel-length gown of rosepoint tulle and nylon tulle over bridal satin. The gown was fashioned with a scalloped white prayer hood topped with white roses, satin ribbons and ivory streamers.

Her maid of honor, she was attired in a ballerina length gown of turquoise crystalatite. The gown was fashioned with an empire waist and circular skirt with a center interest of knife pleating. She wore a matching turquoise crystalatite headdress and carried a bouquet of white daisies centered with pink roses.

Mrs. Robert Richards of Grand Rapids, sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Dinkel of Grand Rapids, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were styled identical with the maid of honor's, and they carried bouquets of white daisies.

Jerrold T. French, brother of the groom, served as best man. Others were William Soule, Thomas Rickman, Gordon Randall, and Paul Lachmann, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lachmann selected a dusty rose two-piece dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mona Van Horn, Lois Huey and Mrs. William Soule were hostesses at a reception in the social room of the Kanley Chapel following the ceremony.

For her going-away outfit, Mrs. French wore a light blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. The couple will honeymoon in northern Michigan before making their home in Kalamazoo.

EXPLORER SCOUTS TAKING FIVE DAY CANOE EXCURSION

Wallace - Brown Vows Exchanged At St. James

Shirley Elaine Wallace became the bride of a 2 1/2 Jack Daniel Brown on July 9 at a 6:00 p.m. ceremony at St. James Episcopal Church in Redford. The Rev. Brown officiated at the single-line ceremony.

The bride wore an embroidered frothy organza gown that was fashioned with a V-neckline, short sleeves, a fitted bodice. Three ruffled flourishes accented the skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Maid of honor, Gertrude Garley, was dressed in a strapless gown of pink tulle over taffeta and a matching velvet jacket. She carried red roses. Bridesmaids Susan Wallace and Janet Brown wore identical dresses in blue tulle.

Robert Brown served as his brother's best man. Ushers were William Longhurst and Gordon Anderson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wallace donned a full length gown of light lavender chiffon and a white rose corsage. Mrs. Brown wore a full length gown of pale rose tulle and lace accented with a sequin train. She also wore a white rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a lawn reception was held at the home of the bride on Orchard Lake Road. A buffet luncheon was served featuring a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with delicate blue doves. Mrs. Helen Hayes, a friend of the family, made the toast.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wallace, is a 1953 graduate of Farmington High School. She has been employed at the Southfield Township office. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Brown of Indian Avenue and he is now serving in the United States Air Force. The couple will live at the Del Rio Air Force Base in Texas until the end of his enlistment.

MRS. JOHN LAKE

Lorraine Horner Becomes Bride Of John Lake

Lorraine Horner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Horner of Forrer Avenue, Detroit, became the bride of John Robert Lake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Lake of Shawansee Road, Saturday morning, July 9, at St. Scholastica's Church.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown that was accented by a Chantilly lace bodice with a square collar neckline. Her voluminous skirt swept into a cathedral train. Her illusion veil fell from a Chantilly lace pillbox and she carried a white orchid which was placed on a mother-of-pearl prayer book. She also carried a white lace heirloom handkerchief which belonged to the groom's grandmother and is over 100 years old.

Maid of honor Martina Typinski and bridesmaids Mrs. Edward Coombs and Mrs. Robert Fischer, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Albert Horner, her sister-in-law, all wore crystal blue silk organza waltz length gowns fashioned with square necklines, pleated bodices and full skirts belted with violet velvet ribbons. They wore white picture hats and carried baskets of white and violet flowers.

The bride's lace, Elizabeth Coombs, was flower girl. Wearing a dress identical to those of the bridesmaids and carrying a wicker basket, she dropped rose petals for the bride.

Robert Fischer served as best man. Seating the guests were Albert Horner, Edward Coombs, John Pover, and Arthur Pointe. The bride's father, John Lake, officiated the ceremony was held at the Western Golf and Country Club.

Band Classes Program Set Up

A special four-week Youth Music Course at Michigan State University is providing advanced training and new experiences for Betty Van Amedye, 33075 Financer Court, a Farmington High School student, along with other students from schools throughout the state.

This 10th annual special summer session began June 27 and will climax July 16. Sponsored by the U. S. U. Department of Music, the course has attracted 229 students in grades 7 through 12 and to June graduates.

The youths are participating in various musical groups, including a concert band, a training band for beginners, orchestra, vocal chorus and ensembles. The course will climax during the closing week with concerts by the groups.

Classwork in music theory is required of each student, with special work also offered in conducting, music listening and other fields of interest.

The youths have been living in college dorms and enjoying camping on the Red Cedar River, ice skating at the campus rink, and other planned activities.

Farmington Players Plan Union Lake Meeting

The Farmington Players will hold their next meeting July 16 at the home of Mrs. Lillian Dunsanson at Union Lake. Make-up and starting are on the agenda, and the recreation will include swimming. A pot luck lunch will be served.

Plans are now under way for a group theater party to attend one of the Melody Circus plays.
